Home of the Bedford Flag

The Bedford Flag, commissioned to Cornet John Page in 1737 by King George II of England, was carried by his son, Nathaniel, who fought with the Bedford Minutemen at the Battle of Concord Bridge, April 19, 1775.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SENIORS

In second grade, we witnessed the construction of the new Davis School, it was awful. In 5th grade we witnessed the renovations of the Lane School. In 8th grade we barely reaped the benefits of a new middle school. In our senior year we were subjected again to construction and through it all, we've learned

4 - 37

UNDERCLASSMEN

The underappreciated, overlooked, short, squealing underclassmen. They don't have much to offer but their oversized backpacks and swarming tendencies make them a staple in any gridlocked hallway.

38 - 65

SPORTS

Often overmatched by Dual County League schools that are up to two times the size of Bedford High, our student-athletes know full well that it isn't the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight is the dog.

66-101

ART AND MUSIC

Whether it's filling the air at Friday night's home football game, or coming out of the auditorium after school during auditions, music is everywhere. And so is art, lining the walls of our school, reminding everyone to slow down and take in their surroundings every once in a while.

CLUBS

They are varied, and membership may run from five to fifty, but one thing about our clubs--they sure know how to run a good home sale.

116-128

FACULTY

They've got a tough job and though they may not believe it, the students actually don't leave tacks on their chairs. You're safe to sit down, really.

SENIOR THANKS

Thank you Mom, Dad, Alex we may not have always gotten along, but growing up with you all has been quite an experience and I wouldn't have it any other way. Thank you Marcus, Nathan, LAZER, Eliza, Jay, Christine, Katie, Catty, Josh, Rachel, Mr. Shienfeld, Zellner, Donnelly, Mrs. Harvey, and last but not least Mr. Rodriguez. Everyone else, you've been real and best of luck with the next four years of your lives.

Class of 2007 Candid

Despite heavy workloads, skinny lockers, noisy construction, and the regular stresses we encountered this year, seniors didn't forget how to have a good time. From concerts to parties to driving aimlessly with our friends, we've made some great memories this past year.

Luke, Todd, Cris, and Bobby at a killer Halloween party.

Katie, Tom, and Christine watching some good MTV and hanging out.

Juliette, Alisha, Blair, Jenna, Steph, Kendra, and Amanda enjoy the hot weather over the summer.

Max, Lindsay, and Steph get transcendental at 5 am on an English field trip Above: Erin and Lindsay laugh hysterically at the Spirit Week Pop Rally.

Above: Eliza and Caleigh attacked by some guy in a mascot suit at a Spinners game last summer.

Ashley and Megan at a football game in the true spirit of the Buccaneers.

Right: Local celebrities Cary and Tony opening a show this fall for Harry and the Potters at Mass Art College.

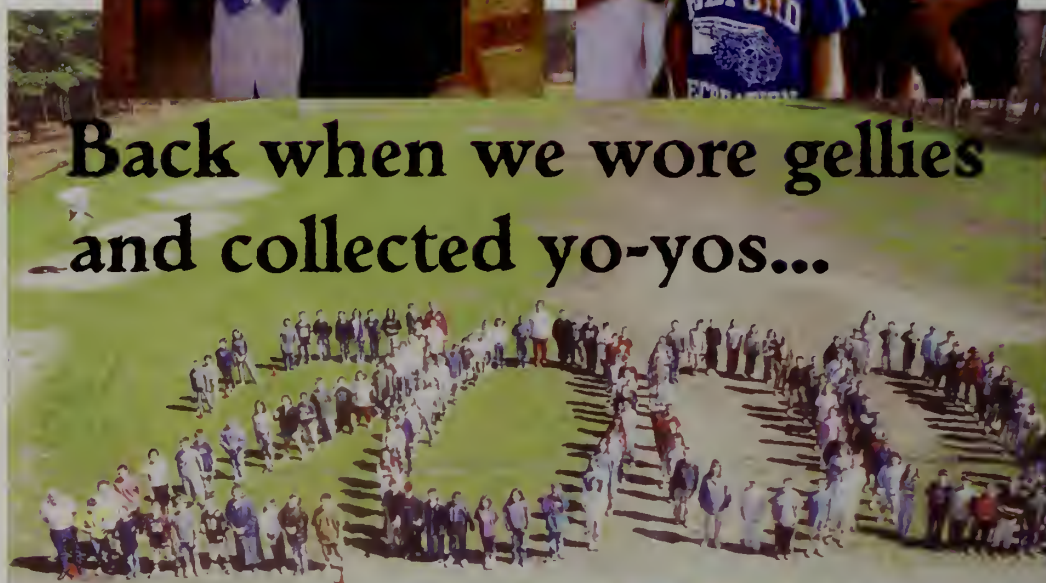

The past 12 years have been a blur.

When you only get one informal dance per year, you better make it count. Seniors Jenna Mitchell Steph Miller-Hendry and Stacey Watro do so at the homecoming dance.

Ever wonder what is inside an owl's stomach? Probably not, but if you want to do well in Mr. Griffin's Environmental Science class you, and senior whoever (left) will have to.

Capturing the moment. At their last pep rally bonfire, seniors Mike Ferro and Mike Barbacano take pictures of the flames on their camera phones.

Fat kids. Not only are T.J. Paganetti and Chris Mercurio (above) teammates, but they were "in the trenches" of the offensive line together.

Try as he might there are just some things that Tony Gong's high center of gravity won't let him do--like touch his nose to this cup.

Around the school

Seniors

Award winners Jeff McGrath, Antoine King and Doug Howie wait to pick up a few of the awards that they earned this football season.

True playa fo' real. The next time you see Woody Carter (below), he may be playing football for the Northeastern Huskies.

Checking in. Sharla Watson (bottom right) hurt her wrist this season and, of course, had to report it to Mr. Mangan.

Juniors

Class of 2008

Junior year means lots of great things. It means bleacher painting, formal dances like the semi-formal and prom. It means that you don't necessarily have to ride the bus, or get dropped off by mommy and daddy because maybe you, or one of your friends, got a drivers licence. It means that you get to eat in a better cafeteria, and it means that you can finally take more some more interesting major classes like psychology and sociology. It also, however, means more work. It means more responsibility. It means that there is only one year to go before we have to leave the friendly confines of the high school.

R-O-W-D-I-E.. That's the way we get rowdy. The juniors class (above), in a stunning upset, was able to take the spirit assembly title from the heavily favored senior class.

Swinger. Bedford Day isn't all games, fundraisers, and food. So junior Alex Trantanella takes time to enjoy the swing set.

Face painters. Always there to support fellow athletes, juniors Josh Kipp and Tim Cederberg go all out when it comes to game day.

Spin doctor. The seniors finished the bat-spin contest before the other classes, but were disqualified for cheating, allowing Chris Haynes and the rest of his team to finish first.

Sophomores

Class of 2009

Sophomore year is a bit like being the middle child in a family. We aren't the youngest. We aren't the oldest. We are talented, but have a long way to go before we reach our full potential. This usually leaves our actors with smaller roles in the musical, our athletes with more time on junior varsity teams than varsity, and we still have tons to learn in the classroom. While sophomore year does include many things that make it difficult like MCAS and more schoolwork, there are many things that take the pressure off all of that work. Sophomore year means things like friends getting their learners permits, going to sweet sixteen parties and being used to the school and the people in it. Best of all, sophomore year means that you aren't a freshman anymore!

Game day. Varsity field hockey players Cora Bently and Kelsey Hartwell sport matching smiles, and uniforms, before their game versus Acton-Boxboro.

Street fight. Sophomore strongmen Joe Tiano, Ryan Carter, Dave Mieu, and Brendan Gibson dressed up for their football psyche.

At Bedord Day there are those who work, and those who play. J.P. Driscoll and Eric Johnson choose the latter.

Bad hair day. But this young Bedford resident actually paid Diana Darkazalli, and the sophomore class, to have his hair colored as part of their fund raiser.

A dirty look. Sometimes even ties can't clean up Monika Joshi and Annie Leslie's looks.

Paying dues. Before she gets on the varsity team, Beth Goeke and others have to raise money for the varsity by selling food during games.

Dude? No, but Katlyn Mohen, dressed as a man, gave a hilarious performance during the tournament of plays. "I am not... a smarty socks..."

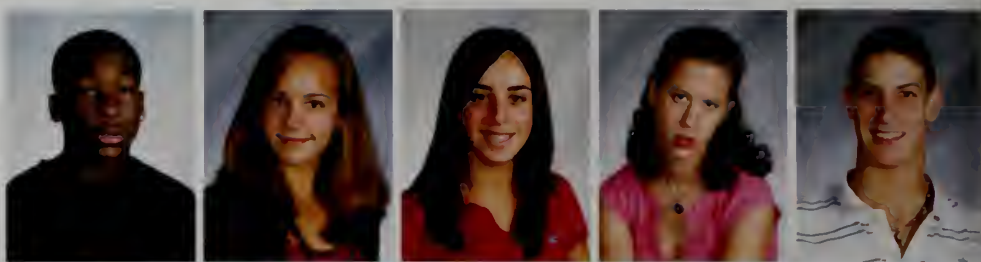

Wild cards. All bets were off on "crazy dress day" during spirit week, and Samantha Duda and Ryan Carter took full advantage.

An easy target. On Bedford Day, Tom Busa and other football players raised money by letting customers throw footballs at their heads.

A little help. Early in the year Max O'Brien had to be wheeled to class by Ryan Clark.

Freshmen

Class of 2010

"The class of 2010," says a freshman with despair in her voice. "That is like... a million years away." Although it may seem like that for some freshmen, it will be here before they know we know it. While freshmen year means more work, seventy minute class blocks, and being pushed around in the halls by huge upperclassmen, it also means breaking away from all those rules that students that attended John Glenn Middle School had to follow. Now we can wear hats to school, we have break, and we get out twenty minutes earlier. It also means that we get to attend a school that has students that have lived all over the world, because of the influx of students that we get from Hanscom Air Force Base. Cheer up freshmen. It's not a million years away... only three.

Out in the open. When the weather is nice Brian Rose, Gabby Bard, and A.J. Grabbertin get to have art class with Ms. Whitney outside.

Balancing act. Being in the high school means that Justin Brooks has to keep a much busier schedule. He is still an athlete, but now he has much more on his mind.

On the edges of their seats. During the spirit assembly, the action can be fast and furious. Even though they weren't participating in events, Jenn Purks and Sarah Watson stay involved.

A shoe in. Try as they did Peter Fotis and the rest of the team couldn't help the team win the shoe relay for the freshmen class.

Hamming it up. With two of the lead roles in the freshmen tournament of plays performance it was clear that Cheyanne Foxtree-Mcgrath and Anoush Arakelian have a bright acting future at the high school, and maybe on bigger stages later.

Hit and run. Under coach Kirkpatrick players like Molly Cain can look forward to the Filed Hockey program improving greatly.

A NEW BEGINNING: THE BLACK SHIRT ERA

Many consider football to be the ultimate team sport. For a single play to be successful, it requires that all eleven players do precisely what they are assigned to do. That, combined with the physical demands and length of the season, make it incredibly tough. Because of this, all the Buccaneers that complete the season have something to be extremely proud of.

When the season started the team had a goal to "Take state..." While that didn't happen, there were many moments that made this season a memorable one: three days in New Hampshire at camp, crushing Boston Latin 47-6, the dominating shutout of Newton South, and the come-from-behind win at Westford Academy.

In the end five seniors were Dual County League all-stars, many underclassmen got valuable playing time, and the team was, once again, competitive in one of the toughest football leagues in the state.

Huddle up. Junior linebacker Kegan Keller (89) calls the defensive set for seniors Doug Howie (37), T.J. Paganetti (60), Tony D'Alleva (57), and Antoine King (22) during their game versus Bishop Fenwick.

The old switcheroo. While the team warmed up for their game with Belmont, coaches hung the new black shirts on the players lockers. When the players were done warming up, they changed, then took on Belmont.

Record breaker! On his way to winning a spot on the Boston Globe All-Scholastic team, and the All-State team (an honor that is reserved for only 22 players in the state) senior Woody Carter (33) broke the school record for touchdowns in a single season.

It's good. Driving kicks through the uprights (below) has become second nature to senior Jon Merlo (26). In only his second year as a kicker Jon, and holder Woody Carter (33), have become one of the most consistent tandems in the league.

Lead the way. Sophomore Joe Tiano (50) "pull blocks" above for senior fullback, and DCL all-star, Antoine King (22). As a freshman Joe played quarterback, but made the switch to line this year Down blocking Senior center Chris Mercurio (52) blocks down on the nose tackle which opens up a running lane for senior Scott Steed (20).

HOW DO WE PLAY?

HARD, SMART, TOGETHER!

The Bedford Boys Varsity soccer team capped off its most successful season in recent memory by making it to the quarter-finals of the Division II North State Tournament, only to lose to Dracut in penalty kicks. The team played through injury and sickness to a 7-7-4 record overall, clinching fifth place in the Dual County League. This was also enough to reach the state tournament, where, after everyone shaved their heads into mohawks, Bedford was able to knock off O'Briant high school 2-0 and Burke High School, the number two seed and Boston champion, 3-2.

Almost every player on this year's team had also been on varsity last year, when the young team struggled to a 1-12-5 record. However, with one year of experience under everyone's belts, they had the skill and work ethic to beat any opponent.

Much of the year's success can be attributed to the coaching duo of Dave Boschetto and Jim Byrnes, who, by their confidence and investment in the team were able to inspire the players to outwork any challenger. By the end of the season, everyone had learned that even the toughest of foes could be beaten if they played "hard, smart, and together."

To the point.

Head coach Dave Boschetto gives direction to striker Jarrod Cox. Boschetto has been the head coach of varsity soccer for 2 years. He preaches hard work and commitment above all other aspects of the game.

BACK TO STATES

This season completed coach Dave Wilson's third season as head coach of the girls soccer team. The Lady Bucs, who finished the season with a record of 11-8-2, were seeded tenth in the MIAA state tournament. But, true to form, the Bucs, who had a first round match up with seventh-seeded Mount Alvernia, were able to defeat the all-girls school 4-1, on the road in Newton. During that game Georgia O'Rourke, Katie Whallon, Clair Criniti, and Courtney O'Connor all scored goals. "This balance was typical of the team," stated coach Wilson, "I am very proud of what they accomplished."

The team will lose eight seniors this season, including DCL all-stars Courtney O'Connor and Alisha Silverstrone but will return fourteen for the next, which will provide a strong nucleus.

Dodge Ball. This season senior Alisha Silverstrone (Below) was able to out maneuver many of her opponents this season, including the Weston player, on her way to becoming a DCL all-star.

Giving it the boot. Another player that will be sorely missed by next year's team is Amanda Pike.

When push comes to shove. Senior captain, and DCL all-star, Courtney O'Connor, a leader on and off the field, out hustles the Weston captain.

Kick Back. One of the team's (and leagues's) best players is Georgie O'Rourke (below).

Junior Olga Chambers-Maher (Above) completed a successful season as the team's goalie.

Junior Corinne Weeks and Senior Katie Whallon were two of the key players that enabled the Lady Bucs to get into the state playoffs.

A FIGHTING CHANCE

It isn't "spin control" to say that this season's field hockey team was successful. The team was able to accomplish several things that will surely help them in the future. They were able to shut out Newton South, a Dual county league rival, which showed that they can be successful in their league. They also almost upset perennial league powerhouse Lincoln-Sudbury, though they did lose 2-3.

The team does have a bright future. New coach Ms. Kirkpatrick will help long-time coach Ms. Barton develop a strong group of underclassmen that will try to replace a tough senior class.

Fast forward. This season was forward Charline Asp's (below) third, and although the statistics might not show it, she was one of the Bucs most effective offensive forces.

Getting down. Senior captain Sarah Jaffer was, seemingly, under constant assault from shots by the opposing team. Fortunately for the Lady Bucs she turned away many shots during what was a strong season for her.

Reaching in. As one of the team captains, senior Kaylynn Klatt's play at center-mid, as well as her leadership were crucial for the Bucs.

Roll with me. Another loss for the Bucs next season will be senior Katie Southard's (below) solid defense. Against Acton-Boxborough the team found themselves on defense a lot, and Katie's dogged defense was key.

Stick it to her. Multi-talented sophomore Katilin Mohen (above) was as strong on the field hockey field as she was on the stage as an actor.

Fast lane. Only a sophomore, mid-wing Allison Hagar was one of several impressive underclassmen who made a significant contribution this season.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

Ready, willing, and able. Senior Steph Miller-Hendry was one of the reasons that the team made it to the state tournament.

The Bedford Volleyball Team had a great season. The Bucs came out strong with three straight wins at the beginning of the season. The team hit a rough patch mid-season, but then came out on top by finishing off the regular season by beating Wayland to qualify for the state tournament.

The Volleybucs made Bedford High School Volleyball history by making it to the quarter-finals of the state tournament. The Bucs defeated Madison Park in three games making it farther in the tournament than any previous season. The Bucs fought hard in their next match, but lost to the future league champion Arlington Catholic team. The girls played their hardest and left everything on the court.

The fall 2006 season was incredible. The team would like to thank Coach Serbus and all of the super fans for all of their support. This season the Volleybucs gave it their all and "refused to lose".

Coach Serbus is passionate about the game and is sure to motivate the girls to play their best.

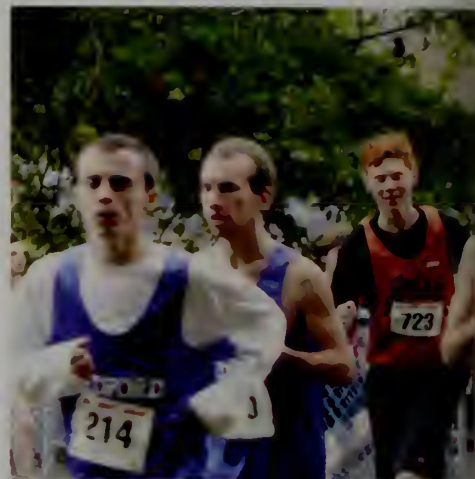

DISTANCE? NO PROBLEM. WE ARE CROSS COUNTRY.

At this season's Dual County meet, the team was only able to finish eighth but, considering the size of some of the schools that they had to run against, coach Solomon was, "quite pleased with the way my kids ran."

At the meet Alex Bradford was our top runner. He was able to finish the 3.1 mile course at Great Brook Farm in Carlisle in 18:51. Jeff Suddy, Chris Donovan, Jarred Heyl, G.J. Baratta and Dell Bennett also ran well for the Bucs. Michelle Richter was the top finisher for the girls, finishing in 24:15 just edging out Jennifer Arndt who finished four places behind her. Melody Morris, Briana Lewis, Katie Norregaard, Aimee Young and Samantha Christen also performed well for the Bucs at the meet.

NEW SEASON NEW ATTITUDE

The Fall Cheerleading team overcame many obstacles during the 2006 season. Coach Billioun brought the team to a brand new level. At the Dual County League meet, the team placed first in their division and second in the league, securing a bid to the regional finals. Their victory earned respect from students and faculty alike. Senior captains April Wilson, Blair Pekala, and Cat Iwanchuk mentored the younger, less experienced, team members. Other senior cheerleaders Sarah Jones, Ivana Serret, Janine King, and manager Allison Gramolini also played pivotal roles in keeping the underclassmen focused. Great job on an outstanding season and remember to "KNUCK IF YOU BUC" or even better "JUST DO IT!"

NORTH SECTION FINALISTS

Despite beginning the season with a 1-5 record, the boys basketball team battled back to finish the season 11-9. The team entered the state tournament as the tenth seed, but easily ripped through their first-round opponent North Reading 65-40. The team's second round win was amazing, and included a 24 point second-half comeback. The third round game was another blowout for the team over Wilmington. The season ended with a loss to Wattertown at the Tsongas Arena in Lowell in the North Section Finals.

The successful season, coach Byrnes said, will "stay with the players for a lifetime. The five seniors never quit. Every single day in practice they set the tone. If you don't have those kids with character, you don't get here. That's the secret of the turnaround."

With a strong group of returning underclassmen, next season should be just as memorable for the Bucs, and their fans.

The senior leadership of Alisha Silverstrone (right) was a large part of what made the team successful this season.

Junior Kim Zolla (below) will be counted on heavily to lead the Bucs next season.

Junior Colleen Strachan's (right) speed and athleticism make the lefty a formidable force on offense and defense.

Junior Kandace Valentine's (right) skills and hustle were invaluable for the Bucs this season.

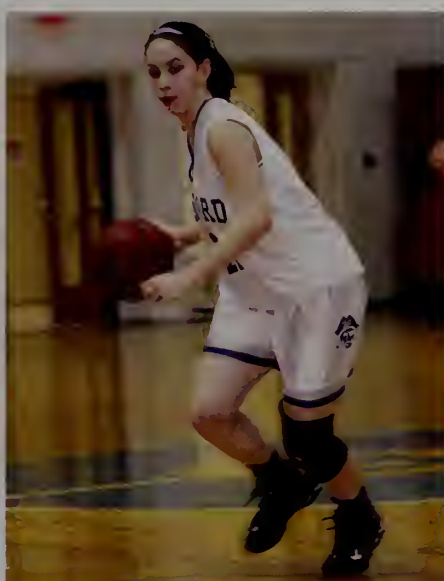

TOURNAMENT TIME

Point guard Sarah Caliri (below), who last year made the varsity squad as a freshmen, was troubled by a nagging knee injury this season, but will surely add much needed punch in '08.

This season the girls basketball team earned a fourth straight trip to the state tournament. The team finished the season 10-10 in the extremely competitive Dual County League. The girls entered the tournament as the eleventh seed, but was stopped by a powerful Ipswich squad in the first round.

The team will return a strong core of players for next year. The Buccaneers had only one senior this year, Alisha Silverstrone, who missed the final four games of the season with an ankle injury.

RUN, JUMP, THROW

Only sophomore Billy Page's (left) potential as a star in the filed events is unlimited.

This year's winter track team sprinted, jogged, threw, and jumped their way to eighth place in the incredibly competitive Dual County League. While they competed against teams that were often twice their size, the Bucs were able to put up some impressive individual numbers. Mike Barbacano, the Buccaneers top preformer, placed third by clearing 5'11" in the high jump. In the 55 meter dash, Scott Steed finished seventh with a time of 7 seconds flat. Junior Hope Bigda-Peyton placed fourth, jumping 16'6" in the long jump.

ICE TIME!

Senior captain Craig Larsen (left) was one of three allstars that skated for the Bucs.

Junior Mario Cutino (below) will be counted on to do great things for the Bucs next season.

This season the ice hockey team skated, checked and scored their way to through another tough Merrimack Valley/Dual County League schedule. At the end of it all, coach of the year winner Coach Marifione, and the rest of the team, had to say goodbye to the many seniors, including as all-stars D.J. Cohen, Criag Larsen and Patrick O'Brien. The Bucs return a strong core of young players for next season, and may be skating in a new home rink.

Another sophomore who has a bright future on the swim team is Emma Howie (right).

One of the stronger swimmers is Kevin Lu (right).

IN THE SWIM OF THINGS

Two sophomores that made a huge impact on the team this year were Chris Donovan (below), and Annie Leslie (right).

Senior Bobby McConnell (right) and Junior Joe Ball (above) both contributed well to the team this season.

IT'S ALL DOWNHILL

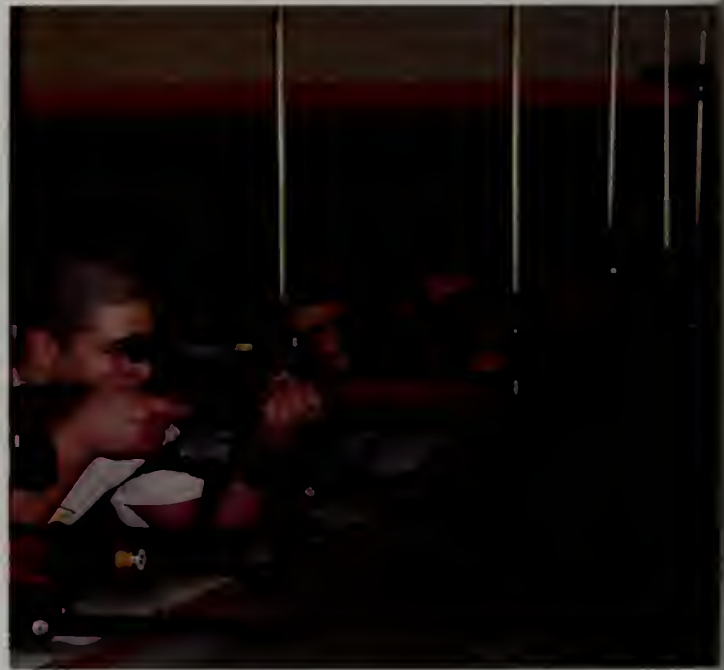

While the loss of seniors like Ashley Theodore (left) will hurt the team in competition next season, there are plenty of freshmen, like Matt Tiano (below), that will be sure to help the team recover.

The boys and girls alpine ski teams finished the season in fourth place in Mass, Bay West's Omega Division. The boys team finished with 17 wins, and the girls pulled out 10.

READY. AIM. RIFLE!

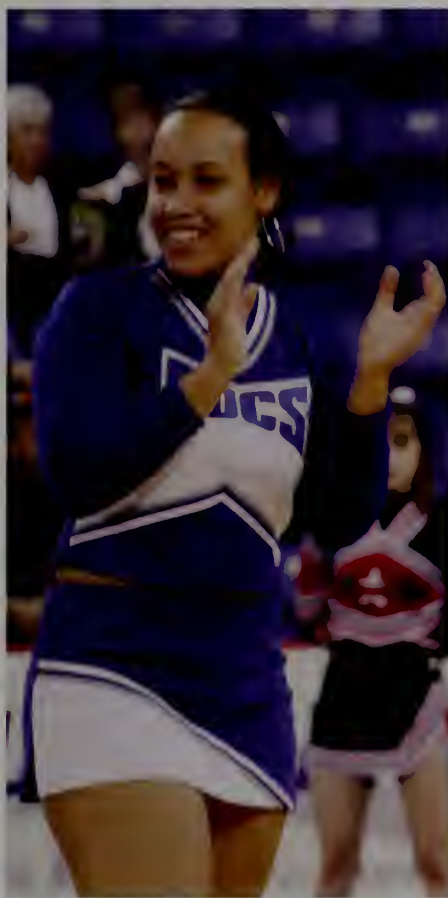

One of the school's most consistently successful, and yet somehow underappreciated, teams is our rifle team. At the time of printing, the team had only two losses, and was on its way to another league title. The team also placed first in Region One of the American Legion national championships. There the team scored 1,988 points to lead a field of teams from Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Dusty Smith was the individual champion in Region One scoring 520 points which qualified her for the national championship round.

Acting up!

Every year each class puts on a play for a competition called The Tournament of Plays. Students in all grades have the opportunity to perform to a packed house. The students have the choice to write an original play, or to write their own. This year the competition was fierce for second place. The winner of this year's award for best play was senior Ben Johnston, and went to the seniors for their production of Shenanigans.

Celebration! At the end of their play, and the end of the night, the seniors cut loose. Their play was by far the best of the night, and their celebration was well deserved.

Although Greg Zolla (below) did not play a major role in their play, he showed the promise that the sophomores will need if they want to win next year.

This year the John Glenn Middle School cafeteria hosted the 18th annual Madrigal dinner. As is tradition, wenches and stewards in period costume play host to around 300 guests over a two night span. The cafeteria is transformed into an authentic looking medieval castle.

INTO THE WOODS

This year's musical, an adaptation of a novel by James Lapine, with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, brought well-known fairy tales to life. This fantastic story put a new twist on these tales by blending them with the story of a baker and his wife, who were trying to reverse a curse on their family that left them unable to conceive a child. This time, however, all did not necessarily end happily ever after.

STAFF

Our school wouldn't be the same without our staff of caring individuals. No field trips, no clubs, no events would happen without staff involvement, and our students are fortunate enough to be taught by a group of people that are dedicated to helping us achieve great things inside and outside of the classroom.

Trained as a drummer, Mr. Felker (above left) is just as comfortable with a trumpet in his hand.

Be it the History Fair, or as a coach, graduate of Bedford High School Ms. Verrier constantly makes herself available to students whether inside the classroom or outside.

Environmental Club advisors Mr. Griffin and Ms. Suprise (below right) chaperone trips from the Concord River to the Yucatan Peninsula

Fourth year teacher Captain Rich Carson teaches proper drill technique to R.O.T.C. students in the gymnasium.

An administrators first year is always tough, but asking assistant principal Kevin Tracy (below) to sweep is really pushing it.

If you're reading this to see if you're in it, please stop. Just move on to the next one, which I think will be Marianna Ballou's. I'm sure it will be fantastic. I'm far too busy a man to start remembering whether or not I have friends. Although, I do seem to recall two boys, their name escapes me... Paulies, or Hughleys, or something. They're your typical lanky, conscientious types. You know the ones I'm talking about. Then there's that other one, bookish, chelonian... we worked on some kind of historical carnival together, he and I and some other girl, who did most of the work... I was producing Haircut 100's reunion album at the time and didn't have the chance to learn their names. Let's see... then there's group of ruffians I spent a few late evenings with, dining at fast food restaurants while I was working on ghostwriting Sue Grafton's latest novel (T Is For Toreador: Coming to a drugstore near you April 2007!). I thank them for medicaments. Then there was that Italian boy, the one who liked cars and Mad TV... I'd like to thank him for getting me into shape before my prizefight with Bob Saget on HBO (thanks to Darude for the montage music). Thank you to that girl, the pretty one, we got coffee once. That was great, I'd never had coffee, it tastes like chalk (thanks Doug Funnie). An extended thanks to the good members of the social studies department (they know who they are), that English teacher that doled out pastries and sound advice, that curly-haired fellow who turns something as simple as a request for a pencil into a 30-minute conversation, and that girl that was my friend until she told me this was going to cost 30 dollars.

Thank you to everyone who's made me think or laugh or smile. To my teachers. To my family—thanks for your amazing support. Liam—It's difficult being the only kid left, but I know you can handle it well. Alan—Thank you for being there and for listening. Victoria—We actually got closer once you switched schools. To Frañolais! Katie—Thanks for the obsessive Harry Potter conversations and for always being there. I'm not sure what I'll do when we're not in the same class. Sarah—Thanks for the music and steady friendship. Jenn—Thank you for surviving X-blocks and for being a splendid locker buddy. Elissa—I'm sorry if we scarred you in freshman art class. You are uber-cool. Breanna—I'm glad I got to know you, though it hasn't been that long. Olivia—We drifted apart a bit during high school, but I wanted to thank you for being such a good friend to me. Gemma—We've lost touch some, but I've loved the friendship we've had. Keep being yourself. Sophie—Ahh! Choir! Chambers! Madrigal! And lit mag, sort of. You're amazingly fabulous. Adrienne—You are such a cool person. I'm going to miss you tons!

First I want to thank my parents. I love you both... Mom, you are always there when I need you, you have never missed a single game, track, or cross country meet, and I know I can count on you to always be there in the stands. And Dad I don't think that I would be where I am today if it wasn't for you. Especially in the vehicle aspect, I don't think there's anyone else who in their right mind would allow a high school teenager to have three cars in a span of 2 years. From a Maxima, to a Mazda, to a Cadillac. Numerous car shows since the day I left the hospital for the first time. Best in show, and best in class were frequent awards that you and I won every other weekend.

The greatest part of high school has to be the times you have spent with your friends. From the 8th grade Washington D.C. Trip to trips to 7-11, and continuous summer nights by the pool at my house. Doug I have known you longer than most people and we have had some awesome times, especially the ones in the go-cart. Oh your basement = some awesome times. Ferro, the van was amazing, that provided transportation for about 15 kids at a time... clutch! Jacob, man we have sure gotten into some trouble, stupid moves in our matching Maximas! Covering for each other whenever we needed it, and just being there for each other, thanks Jake, I appreciate it. Jeremy, and Anthony... the three of us in elementary school were inseparable! Everyone that I can always count on to make me laugh, Bobby, Machado, Larsen, Wyatt, Guanci and Jarvis. Everyone on the football team, to be specific: Jeff, Scott, Woody, Antoine, Jon, T.J., Tony, -FaTzZ-, Ferro, Doug, and Anthony we have gone through soo much, 3 years of double sessions, camp in New Hampshire, 123 degree days in the weight room all summer, leadership training, 6 am. Saturday morning running in the freezing cold... thanks a ton all of you! Ana I don't know where to start, ever since indoor track my sophomore year I knew I wanted to be with you. The limo, Walden Pond, Fire Island, and soo many more places and things we have done over these 2+ years. You are always there to listen to me when I need to talk, guiding me between right and wrong, I have learned so much from you. High school never would have been the same without you!

First off, the family. H - thanks for delivering laundry on your knees, being the jinx, and teaching me how to shop at a very young age. I wouldn't have been able to make it through high school without you, even though it was frustrating at times. Thanks for everything you've done and always pushing me to succeed. I'll miss you next year, but if I'm in Boston feel free to do my laundry. Dad - thanks for everything you've done for me. You've spoiled me since I was young, and I couldn't ask for more. Thanks for being my football buddy, and always taking me to see the Eagles and Patriots. Thank you for all of your guidance, and I'll miss you next year. Love you both! And to the greatest sisters in the entire world. Jill - you have always been the older sister that I've looked up to. Thanks for all of the great BC nights, giving me fashion advice, making mom smell my breath when I came home at night and always being there for me. I miss you so much, and hopefully you'll be back in New England soon! And Ed, where to begin? You've always made me laugh no matter the situation. Thanks for munster bangs, ski jumps, eggs and tuna, "smells like salmon," never attending family events, the jockstrap, and always seeing eye to eye with me. We continuously get along, and thanks for all of the fun times we've had together. I will miss you two so much next year, love you! Next, to my three best friends. Kendra - we been friends since we were young and you have always been there for me, especially to hear my scandalous stories and what not. I cherish your friendship, and know that I will always be here for you no matter what the situation. Thanks for all of the fun times we've had at concerts, taking me to my first party (haha), and so many more memories! I'll miss you so much next year. love you! Steph - thanks for being the "mom" of my friends. You always had advice (GOT) and tell the juicy stories I love to hear! Once again, thanks for so much advice, PDA, and always wanting to have a good time. I treasure every bit of our friendship, love you! Maya - you are a sick individual. We always have such an awesome time when we're together, no matter what we're doing. Thanks for all of the gossip and hustlin' we partook in. We always see the best in people (if you know what I mean), and I love the fact that we can find humor out of anything/anyone (haha). Thanks for your Derek O. obsession, phones in bathroom stalls, being the next Betty Crocker, angsty songs from freshmen year, and so much more! I'll miss you next year, love you! And Bazz - where to begin? I don't know what it is about you, but it seems that I can do anything "loco" and you always act just as crazy! Thanks for everything throughout high school, including our many nicknames, farting on camera, convincing D-Lon that he hooked up with Tyson, Eazy-E and Pete Pablo, and so much more. I've always wanted a brother, and you have acted as that in a way for me (except that would make our relationship kinda weird, just kidding). I will miss you so much next year! Thanks to the rest of the boys and Wyatt for being my math buddy and playing the lyric game! And to the most amazing girls 2006. Michaela - I missed you so much this year! Thanks for hiki in NH at such a young age, owning a detachable ruffle (or maybe not...), dancing to the Spice Girls with our sisters, the first date jitters, Walti/Balti, making wristies, gossip, Matt Pearson stories, playing on facebook during finals, and being the best tennis partner ever! Thanks for making high school so much more enjoyable, and I love you! Leah - I miss you so much too! Thanks for taking me out as an underclassmen and bringing out the side of me that loves rap (just kidding...). You always like to have a good time, and when we always so just that! I love you! To the field hockey girls Kristina, Ashleigh, Mel, Jamie, and Charlene, I will miss you all next year, and good luck with the rest of high school and field hockey! Corinne, thanks for being my dance buddy! Unfortunately, we quit but it was a blast while it lasted (even though we always dreaded Robin...). Good luck next year! To the class 2006, thanks for making high school a blast while you were here. To everyone in the class of 2007, good luck!

 Mom and Dad, thank you for being the most loving, caring, and incredible parents. I truly appreciate all the love, support, and guidance that you have given me. Mom- from cutting my cheerios in half to our OC nights, you have been there for me since day one with an open heart and arms. Thank you for always understanding me, and for knowing when I'm upset and needing a hug. Thank you for finding the hypotenuse, making meatloaf with corn meal, adding a comma to each of my papers, and most importantly, putting the butter in the butter dish. I love you. Dad- thank you for always talking to me and being there when I need you. From trying to make me not scared of the softball to cheering me on at my soccer games, I cannot even begin to thank you for everything you have given me. Thank you for all the boat rides and taking the tubing and for embedding a love of Lake Winnepesaukee in my heart. I love you. Diana- From sneaking into each other's rooms at night to playing "touched-ya-last" we have so many memories, which will just continue to grow. "If only we were friends, we'd have so many inside jokes." You are my best friend, and I know that I can always look to you for guidance and support. Thank you for being such an amazing sister, friend, and person. I love you. Jill- Thank you for being my best friend and my other sister, for leaving me out of the rubber band club, and for all of our trips and memories. Alec- Thank you for all the Coldstone trips and for being the brother I never had. Amanda- you are one of the strongest and nicest people I know. You have always been an amazing friend to me, brightening each day with your smile. Thanks for sucking your thumb with me in first grade, being roommates in Spain, freshie lax, soccer, basketball, OAR, soccer camp, and all our other great memories. Alisha- you are one of the most caring and understanding people I know, and our friendship is something truly special. You have always understood me and you are always able to cheer me up. Thank you for all our deep conversations, physics with Dr. Z, slinky project, detention, your not so sweet 16, soccer, freshie lax, OAR, and the many birthday parties I never attended! Courtney- from meeting guys in Barnes & Noble to painting our nails, we have made so many memories. You have been a great friend for so many years. Thank you for your bodonkadonk, being Alisha's sidekick, your mom's cooking, being my semi date, soccer, your campground, your pool, Bedford Farms, and being perky! Ashley- Thank you for always caring and understanding (especially about soccer). Thanks for always driving and knowing your way around, for Coldstone and Starbucks trips, Sweet Caroline, New Hampshire and tubing, Alisha's sweet 16, and for Patriots and Revs Games. Katherine- you are one of the nicest and most caring people I have ever met. Thank you for always being there, for being my Spirit roommate, soccer co-captains, and actually knowing what we're teaching in CCD. Steph- Thank you for always being so nice to everyone. From 5th grade "Steph D with the key" to freshie lax, Spain, and soccer, you have always been a great friend. Sara- Thanks for always talking about life and boys, Bedford Farms, and for loving toll house cookie pie. Liz- Thank you for always talking about school, gossiping, and Bedford Farms. Happy Mazel Tov. Kendra- from the bus stop and Barbie's to soccer and working at BF you have been a great friend for so many years. Lindsay- for being in all my classes throughout high school. Erin- Crack, Chocolate chip ice cream. April- thanks for Easy Bake Oven and being my other blonde. Also thanks to Ashley R., Cat L., Maya, Brenna, Cat L., Blair, Katie N., Jenna, Sheila, Stacey, and Michelle. To all the guys - thanks for always being fun to hang out with especially Bobby (man eating deer), Max, and TJ. Nancy McConnell- Thanks for the wake up calls. Soccer Girls- thanks for making soccer amazing. Nicky (RP)- my passing/bench-warming buddy. Georgia C.- 101590, texting, juggling, poofy hair, and laughing. Alli- macaroni and cheese and hot dogs. Claire- making scones and brett brett. Also Colleen (Call-ball), Olga, Jo, Sam, Corinne, Mae, Gabby (GB's), and everyone else! Good luck next year! Also thank you to Bedford Farms, Best Buddies (Jung), all of my teachers, and anyone else that I missed! Thank you, congratulations, and good luck, class of 2007!

 I feel as though I could go on for pages and pages writing about the people that have affected me during the last 4 years of my life. Fortunately for you, there is a word limit on this thing. I have to thank my parents; after all I wouldn't be here if it wasn't for them. MOM- Thank you for always pushing me to be the best I could be... Even when I didn't want to be pushed any further, you were still on my case 24/7, though at the time it may have seemed like I hated you, I really do appreciate it in end. You gave me anything I ever needed, I couldn't have asked for anything more. Thank you again, and I love you. DAD- Thank you for helping me become the young adult I am today. I'd also like to thank you for going to any sports game I was ever involved in. BRETT- For being that big brother I modeled myself after. I don't know what I'd be if it wasn't for you. CLASS OF 04- PAT BILLY AND GARY for teaching me anything I needed to know about BHS and life, all in the 2 months we had golf. 05- GLEASON and SPENCER- Too many good times at WW. BUSA, ALBERTO and JEFF- Thanks for the fun times at basketball... Wattertown won't beat us this year. 06- CHAPMAN- For being the single most influential person in my high school career. I can't say if it was for the better or the worse quite yet, but I know for sure had a lot of fun! BRENDAN- For being a genius you aren't too smart... CVS parking lot. Oh well, you taught me a lot and for that, I thank you. Also, try not to forget me when you become a billionaire. DANNY- Thank you for taking me under your wing all of your JR and SR years. I can only imagine how boring every weekend would have been if it wasn't for you. Please don't forget me either when you become a multi-billionaire. BEN- "A.K.A. BINGO!" You are the man, enough said. EVAN- For being the nicest dino I have ever met. KEITH- For having so many talents and for always providing entertainment wherever you were. GREG, O'NEIL, YAP and MATT- Thanks for all the basketball memories. CASS- For being the nicest person I know. BRANDON, TIM, SAM, DUFF, DAVE, COLTEN, REDMOND and BIG NATE- Good times. 07- COLIN- I could go on and on about the good times we've had; too many fun nights at your house. You are my man. I hope we stay close after highschool. DOUG- You've been my friend for as long as I can remember. We have grown so much together since then. I've had too many good times with you; Dave's, Flatbread, Harvard Square, Prom and Taco Bell just to name a couple... And of course the good times, and many more to come at your house. THE POOLEYS- Thank you for being the most unique and down to earth people in Bedford. You guys added so much to my highschool experience. AMANDA- You are the most amazing person I have ever known. Enough said. MAYA- Thank you for always being there whenever I had something to complain about. ANTHONY- We have known each other for a long time, and over that time, you have always been fun to be around. Thanks. NICK P- Thank you for helping me get through highschool. CRAIG LARSEN and CRIS- You guys made golf so much more enjoyable. Thank you. WEAVER, JAKE, JOHN and JUSTIN- Too many good times to count over last summer. WYATT- My partner... I don't think we will ever lose another game. BASILE- Thank you for always having people over. LUKE, JON, FERRO, BARBS, BOBBY, GREG, JEREMY JEFF, TYLER, CHRIS, LARSEN, WILSON, ANTOINE and SCOTT... My Boys. WOODY- I'm happy you came to Bedford, we had some good times together. The girls... STEPH, KENDRA, LINDSAY, ERIN, ELIZA, CAT L, APRIL, DEVON, ASHLEY, SARA and LAUREN. 08- Nicky- You are the best. Thank you for always being there for me. To the rest of the eddo's, you guys were fun... sometimes. ANDY- We have had a lot of good times the past 6 or 7 years. Thanks man. CHRIS AND MIKE, SCOTT, PAT and BEAN good times. JOSH, JERRY, TERRANCE AND RYNE 09- MAE, DIANA, CORA, RACHEL, GIANNA, TAYLOR, DANIELLE, CHARLOTTE and KELSEY. KEITH, TYLER, COLIN, DAVE, MILES, NICK, DAVIO and my dude KAMIL. VICTORIA- Thank you for being the most mature freshmen I have ever known. Thank you to the couple good teachers I had in highschool- MR. DONNELLY, MR. SUNDERLAND, MR. WALSH AND MRS. HARVEY. I'm sorry if I forgot you, they wouldn't give me any more room.

Mom and Dad, I want to thank you guys for always being there for me when I needed you. I know our relationship hasn't always been what it should be, but I'm glad that you guys care so much about me. I also want to thank my home-boys, life would not be the same without you guys; Neil, Cory, Perry, Nick, Jay, Andy, Rob, Ben, Kevin, Bill, and Luke. Thanks guys for being there for me when I needed you guys the most. We boyz for life! Love you all!

Family- You mean the world to me. You have always been there for me, offering your love and support. I will miss you so much next year. MOM- Thank you for always pushing me; for telling me that I can do whatever I put my mind to, and being there every step of the way, cheering me on and picking me up when I fall. Thank you for London and Paris, thank you for the cocoa, and mostly thank you for being the amazing person that you are. You do so much for me, never asking anything in return. I hope you know how much I appreciate everything you do. I love you. DAD- Thank you for all that you do for me. "You can't weasel a weasel!" Thank you for the boat. No other cars can compare. Thank you for understanding me, even when I don't. Thank you for being such a great father. I love you. ADAM- Thank you for being the best birthday present ever. Even though you've spent years perfecting the art of annoying me, you always know how to make me laugh too. From getting attacked by Rascal, to laughing with me when Casey ran into the door, and random trips to the movie store. You have four years of high school ahead of you... they will go by fast so enjoy them. I love you little brother. ALISHA- I couldn't ask for a better friend. You always know how to make me smile. You've been there for me since that first day when your mom made you say hi. Batman & Robin, family vacations, soccer, your computer journal, playing football in the snow for hours, throwing ice cream at me, *Nsync, trying to find the Tweeter Center, tons of our little projects. You know me better than I know myself. You have always been there to offer a shoulder to cry on, a joke to make me laugh hysterically, or a hug to reassure me. It is going to be so strange going away to school without you, but I will always just be a phone call away. I love you so much. SARA- You are my dancing queen. You can never stay still for a minute. You always have some obscure song to sing to me. Thank you so much for last year. I don't know what I would have done without you. JULES- My roommate, spirit sports camp, my soccer buddy (3 years rocking JV), CCD (laughing when you forgot the "our father"), weekends in NH, nights in your basement. Thank you. STACEY- You always make me laugh; from working at Chip-In to camp and dances. You never take crap from anybody, and I wish I could be more like you. Jenna- Hedgie, Ms. Doherty's wedding project. For always having a song to sing to me. For getting hypnotized with me and laughing hysterically when I followed your finger. Julie- Spirit, best cook ever, pool parties, and TV talk. Lisa- Throwing ice cream at me on my birthday, baking brownies, gym talks, and movies in your basement. Steph MH- visiting me at Chip-In, and snowball fights when my car wouldn't start. Courtney- Middle school dances, *Nsync, somehow making it through physics, introducing us to Francis' boot camp. Amanda- Almost getting lost at *Nsync, soccer, and freshe lax. Steph D- Ms. Doherty's wedding project, teaching me the electric slide in social studies, soccer. Kendra- For never letting me say I'm sorry, soccer. Ashley T- For years of soccer, math & English classes, and for always speaking your mind. Olga- Goalie. Punts that went in the wrong direction, pizza night, never wasting the food, camping, laughing at ourselves. Heather- driving buddy, claiming my passenger seat, breakfast fund, art projects, elephant hugs. Enjoy the next three years; they'll be over before you know it. Thank you for always starting my day off with a smile. Carl- Thank you for scaring me at haunted houses and flying down Dudley road. I wish I'd gotten to know you sooner. And last but certainly not least... SOCCER GIRLS- you gals have made these years unbelievable. Thank you. Good luck next season.

DJ COHEN

I would just like to say that the following people who I'd like to give my thanks to, could never possibly imagine how grateful I am for everything they have done for me over these years. I want to first thank my parents and my sister Jacqui who have supported me in everything I've done and continue to do, in both the good and bad times. So, um, yeah... love you guys. I would also like to thank my best friend Craig, with whom I practically grew up with, brothers for life man. I also want to thank all the coaches I've had over the years for all their wisdom, as well as all the teammates I've had the pleasure of playing with in all my sports, you guys made the experiences worthwhile. Nick Plugis, I'll always remember going to Chicago and being the first to become Eagles, no wait, Palms together. Lastly, I want to thank all my teachers, especially Mr. Connolly who's taught me so much for the past four years. All the other groups I've spent the years with, my class of '07, and any one else who I've failed too mention, THANK YOU!!

MOM - From day one, you have been there supporting me in whatever I do. Thanks for cooking delicious dinners, coming to ALL of my sporting events, having cookies made after every first day of school, comforting me in my times of need, and encouraging me to do what is best for me. I love you. DAD - Thanks for always having a life lesson for me when I came to you for help. Thanks for the computer help throughout the years, eating together on the weekends, and great laughs at family dinner outings. I love you. KEITH - You are truly the kindest and most thoughtful brother a sister could have. Thanks for looking out for me, stealing all the teddy grahams, and for being a funny guy that always made me laugh. I am so proud of all the hard work you have done so far in your life. I love you.

BRANDON - Ever since I met you, you have been the most considerate and sweetest guy I have ever met. You are one of my best friends and will be forever. I love you more. STEPH - Thanks for always being there for me. Even though you didn't always have a solution to my problems, you were always a great listener and gave great advice. Thanks for the sleepovers, the lunch dates, the g-b in the Spiderman, the countless laughs, the two best movies of all times. TMJN, always believing in me, and just all the priceless memories. I love you. LINDSAY - Thanks for being you. You are truly unique and I never want to lose you. You have also always been there for me. Thanks for your kindness, your spunk, all the fun late night talks about everything, the sleepovers, TMJN, setting me up my facebook, driving around listening to music, and all the help you have given me to become the person I am today. I love you. MAYA - Thanks for being the most beautiful and caring person ever. Thanks for the picture perfect Christmas breakfast, totally awesome CD mixes, bringing me delicious tea, and all the things in between. I love you. MAX (Prease, Wizard, Bazy) - you are one cool kid. I don't think I will ever get old of "PREASSE!" and "SNEAK-A-PREASE!" Thank you for making me laugh so hard it hurts. You are so genuine and kind. I could start thanking you for countless places in time that meant a lot to me, but it would not justify how much you mean to me. CAT - Thanks for the sleepovers, the dances, the 6th grade talent show. TMJN, and good times at BF. AMANDA - Thanks for being the friendliest girl on this earth and tanning outside on your lawn while drinking iced tea on warm summer days. ALISHA (Lish) - Thanks for all the goofy giggles and playing capture the flag. COURTNEY - Thanks for always being optimistic and having people over to hang out at your house (and your mom's cooking).

JULIETTE - Thanks for all the great times from when we were little until now and thanks for always being so hilarious. ASHLEY - Thanks for being someone who I can trust, making me laugh at the silly things you say, and crazy times at the neighborhood parties! KATHERINE - Thanks for always saying sorry and being so kind. JEREMY - Thanks for cracking jokes, being good to Steph, and good times just hanging out.

WYATT - Thanks for being one of the funniest kids alive, making me tougher, and telling me it was going to be okay when I didn't want to go in the pond with the fish. ERIN and SARA H. - I loved getting to know you girls better. BF Buddies! APRIL, BLAIR, and CAT L. - Hanging out was always so much fun, especially senior english class. You guys are the best! BRENNIA - Thanks so much for being so sweet and fun. Thanks for the free sundae and the fun times doing the Civ II project. JEFF, DOUG, BOBBY, MACHADO, TODD, ANTHONY, FERRO, JON, BARBACANO, LUKE, WILSON, and MATT - You guys are just awesome. I always had so much fun when I was around you. Thanks for all the good times and the laughs! CORINNE and COLLEEN - Words can't describe how amazing you girls are. You both always put a smile on my face even if I wasn't having a great day. I will miss you-good luck next year! FOR ALL MY TEAMMATES from soccer, lax, and cheering - Go Bucs! And a very special thanks to Mr. Mangan for helping me with all my injuries and always making me laugh. Take care. Mangan. I hope I didn't forget anyone, but if I did, thanks for all the memories. Good luck Class of 2007!

First of all, thank you Mummy and Daddy for always knowing the right thing to do, and for supporting me in everything I do. And of course, thank you for being so normal. Shreya, thanks for being the coolest nerdy sister ever, for dealing with my ridiculous nicknames for you, and for taking showers before coming home - love you so much! To the rest of my family, my grandparents, Biv, Ash, Rush, Shil, Mini, and tU, thanks so much! Rhiana, I'm really glad we became such good friends, we have had so many good times... attempting to make blackberry pie, trying on clothes, knitting, trading vegetables, and in general... eating and talking. I love you! Nisha, we have been friends since before I remember... from playing trouble to well... making trouble, you have always been there. I love you and your family so much! Sheila, thanks for being amazing to talk to, for sharing the fun of the sin curves, and for asking Otto what his real name was. We have had a lot of fun, and I'm really going to miss you next year. Corn on the cob... hahahaha! Ani... thanks for hugging me that day, and for having endless laughing fits with me every day. Aditi, thanks for always making me laugh, and of course, for being a sweettoot. Do you want some sugar? Nicole, thanks for being my second sister, I love you! Michelle... we are the best pretzel makers ever. Megan... you are awesome thanks for being one of the weirdest, but coolest people ever! Deandra... Omega! Resisestivity! and lots more... And to the rest of my friends, Sohini, Shachi, Abha, Angana, Karan, Kartik, Jyo, Amudha, Liz, Ashley, Sarah, and anyone else I didn't mention, thanks for everything!

I'd like to thank everyone that's stuck with me through the years. All of the guys: Dan, John, Pat, Erik, Lucas (even if he isn't here anymore), and Ethan. I'd like to thank Caitly Urquhart for nothing. You know what? Thanks to every one of my friends, you know who you are, for everything that you've done, and for putting up with me. Thanks to my family (Mom, Dad, Spencer, Caleb, and Rachel). If I've forgotten anyone, don't get mad at me, it's 2 in the mornin' and these were supposed to be in yesterday. Peace Out... MOM- Thanks for always knowing what to do and how to do it.

You're always taking care of me, teaching me, encouraging me and laughing with me. Thanks for being your silly self, I love you.

DAD- Thanks for always putting a smile on my face, even when I really don't want you to. I love your sense of humor, your relax-personality, and your fun loving character. Thanks for always supporting me, I love you.

ASHLEY- Thanks for always thinking of me. I appreciate all your energy and surprise gifts. You and I both know my life would be way too dull without you, I love you.

JEREMY- Thanks for being my everything. You complete and full ny part of me and I know that you will always be there. Thanks for being silly, being a worry wart, teaching me random lacrosse stuff, accepting my quirkiness, and letting me take the end seat on the couch. Our memories are endless and so is my love for you. ADRA- Thank you for inviting me over to learn the Bye Bye Bye dance. From the timeless handshake to acting like we know how to dance with it and rock with it, you have always listened, understood and cared. You're a stunning person and I can't see me without you by my side. I can't wait to share more joy, heartache, laughter, and stupid moments together, you're my crazy B and I love ya babe. X- Sunah Saahhh! Thanks for always knowing what I'm thinking, making me laugh till I can no longer breathe, and for being my friend and Simple Life buddy. My life would not be nearly as fun without you. Thanks for the random laughs, the drama, and the advice. You are a driven and person and I know you're going to do great things.

DSAY- You can always make me laugh, whether you're trying to just being yourself. I'll never forget the Creepy man from work who "lives on your street," shakin' our tail feather in dance class, breaking my neck at homecoming. Thanks for chattin' it up, always falling asleep first at sleepovers so I didn't have to, and for being Lizzard!

YA- I love your laid back personality, your unique style, and your ability to be open and honest. You're a genuine, giving person and you're beautiful both inside and out. Thanks for teaching me how to make grilled cheese and introducing me to iced, unsweetened green tea.

ATT- BASIL! Thanks for introducing me to Cangascan, rap battles, and Doo Doo! Remember to keep those napkins handy cause... I think we're here... EASY!

LANDA- Thanks for always smiling, being warm hearted, and easy talk to. Your energy has definitely enhanced these past four years.

URTNEY- You're always so optimistic, upbeat, and ready to have fun. Thanks for being the bomb digaty!

LIETTE- Julietta! Thanks for being sweet, gullible, caring, and strong willed. You're going to be the best soccer mom ever! member... in a dark, dark room... Steph D. stole the key!

SHA- Thanks for being so wacky. I always end up laughing when I'm with you. I can't wait to step foot in your candy store in years!

HLEY T.- Thanks for being so fun, animated, and honest. We've had some good laughs from making fun of ourselves during soccer game sprints in health.

HERINE C.- Thanks for being so kind, caring and always willing to help. You are the nicest black belt there is.

OLLEEN- Don't forget your inhaler next year! I will continue to work on my bird call, but you have to work on the cheers. Thanks for having a loud, crazy laugh.

ORINNE- Thanks for grossing me out in math class by cracking our back. I enjoyed our talks about relationships and our attempts to play defense in soccer.

ave fun Senior Year!

LAIR & CHRISTINE- OH HAPPY DAY!

ADIES - April, Brenna, Erin, Catherine & Ashley R. (we have to work on our driving range skills), Devon, Shara (classic math class), Ira H., Emily, Sammy G., Cat I., Jenna M., Olivia, Nicole, Georgia (keep that grill shining), all my teammates - Thanks for filling my high school years with jokes, laughter, and many other joyous memories.

USY- Anthony (car shows, mini golf, and just hanging out) Ferro (the handshake lives on) Mike B., Chris M., Todd, Nate, Doug, obhy (thanks for being the number one soccer fan), Machado (I enjoy your nonsense), Jeff, Jon, Rob (4 years strong) & James, Alex, T.J., Greg, Mark, Wilson- Thanks for being funny, talkative, and sane s really over; I am finally finished with high school! Now we have to start over in college. Dad, don't worry, I will still ask you for help with my math courses, just as I did throughout high school.

I remember those days when you would spend entire afternoons trying to teach me basic algebra. I guess it paid off after all. Mom, what would I have done without you? Eighteen years of arguing, shopping, and talking about anything. You always helped me when I needed guidance, an always treated me with respect. You're the best. Marcos, my dear brother I think you are awesome, no matter what anyone says about you! Megan, I never told you this, but I am very jealous of your smartness. Neha, wow three years and you were always a great friend. There are so many jokes and funny times, like that day in gym, when the volleyball knocked your glasses off your face. Oh, remember physics... OMEGA! Speaking of physics, Sheila, I still have no idea. Ashley, I just hope you never go down south... for their sake. You made Health, CPR, and Psych very interesting. Mitchell, you are a great person and I hope you finally learn to roll your R's. Mark, we were the new kids. I will never forget the early days when we would hang out in the morning with Kacee. I am still waiting for her to visit! Lisa, I will forever remember your tongue comment. You made school bearable. Congrats '07, we are done!

Here's to everyone and everything that made high school more than just four years in an unaccredited building. Most importantly I would like to thank my parents for consistent and unrelenting support. To Dad, for all those infuriating mind puzzles, spontaneous science lessons, and hours of math help to keep me on my toes. To Mom, for making a wholehearted effort to keep me normal. Sometimes there's nothing you can do. Next is my sister, Emily. Thanks for putting up with me, and thanks for being a great sister. I'd like to thank those teachers that made a special impact on me: Mr. Venkatesh for showing me what it's like to be truly frightened of a test. To Mr. Huff, for proving that mathematics isn't all fire and brimstone. To Doctor Haswell, thanks for all the help, encouragement, stories, and late-night pizza. Next I'd like to thank everyone on the soccer team - we had a great run. Special thanks to coach Boschetto for three great varsity years, you watched me mature from a scared sophomore to a senior member of a successful team. Finally, and arguably of the most importance (behind my family), I'd like to thank those few friends who really made an impact. Here's to Sam Owen, friend from the beginning, and best by far. Wherever you go, if you give others the friendship you gave me, you will always be happy. Thanks to Luke Davis for playing long hours of soccer with me in middle school and driving me all over creation for our club teams. A very special thanks to the Fonda group - Andy McGavern, Ben Johnston, and Jay Alschuler. That was an experience, to say the least. Oh yeah, and Neil. My bad.

"Don't regret doing things, regret getting caught" anonymous Mom and Dad, you guys have always been there for me and never let me down. I know that at times we have had our disagreements and I'm sorry for this. Thanks so much for being so supportive and always having my back. I love you guys and hope that I can continue to make you proud. Peter, I know that I have beat you up many times and I'm sorry, it's what older brothers do, and you know that it only makes you stronger anyway. You have been an awesome brother throughout the years. It's been nice having you around for those days when there's just nothing to do. As long as your around life is not dull, and as this is my last year in school I hope you continue my legacy and become the crazy one in your group of friends, inspiring for new ideas such as "donutting" Thanks for being a good brother and I look forward to what's in store for the rest of our lives. Anastasia, you are possibly the coolest five year old that I know. The things that you say are hilarious and most of the time you don't even mean it. It's nice being able to ask someone how my hair looks and being able to get an honest opinion. Your still young and have much to go through in life and I'll always be around to help out. Niko, what can I say? You are hilarious. The things you do make no sense and I love you for it. I think that you have some major potential to be more destructive than I was, and with some proper guidance I can get you in the right path. George, your like another brother to me. We have had many good times either tooling on Peter or just the three of us screwing around. As I go I offer this as advice to you, stop buying so many shoes. Neil, first I'd like to say that you're the best Indian a boy could ask for and Kumar has nothing on you. With that out of the way I'm glad that we've been friends throughout the years. It's nice to have someone who is equally devious in their thinking and together we have created some good times. Stay in touch buddy and remember to lay off the doritos in college. Cory you've been an awesome friend and I have to thank you for allowing me to practically live in your house at times. We have many memories and I hope they don't end any time soon. Nick, thanks for cleaning up after Cory and Neil because there was no way I would have. Thanks for always calling me first when you had girls over too, even if it never really worked out like we planned. David, 12 cm. Sorry couldn't resist. It's been nice having someone around to be a nerd with. Bill thanks for being my first Bedford friend, we had some rockin times in our youth. Taec, I don't know where you are but you're the goofiest kid I know. Good luck with your claim to fame. Luke, we have had some sweet adventures into Raytheon and its been nice having someone adventurous around. Kevin, your house is awesome for clementine wars and just hanging out. You're a cool kid, hopefully you won't stray as far as your thinking when it comes to college. Dan thanks for having golf balls for us to launch, and following me in my crazy ideas. Dave, that smoothie war was priceless. Alex im sorry for ruining your drive way multiple times. Christine, you will get donuted, I promise this. Eliza, im pretty sure you owe me some twizzlers. Devon, thanks for being my wingman at prom last year, hopefully well be able to follow up this year Brett, thanks for filling in while your brother was out dying. Steve, your amazing at gladiator hall. Dunlea thanks for running in that 4 hy 4 with me. Thanks bucs for giving me a great season. Finally I'd like to thank Santa, for always being there for me every Christmas and never letting me down.

LISA GOCHT

twinnny, MK, bunny

To start off I want to say thanks to my family, my mom, dad, Britta, and Carl. I love you all and you have been very supportive. Thanks to all my friends for hanging out and doing super fun random things (pudding drop, endless movies, cookie dough) Thanks to the field hockey and lacrosse teams, we have had many great times. Thanks to the crew (I will always hate those stupid hanners!) And thanks to YOU, and the rest of BHS, it has been a pretty good 4 years. Peace out class of 2007!

TONY GONG

Thank you, Mr. Boschetto, for giving me an A on this essay

The Turner Thesis accurately predicted the Western frontier's vast influence on American culture and values. The shaping of American values can be observed in two major legacies of the West: works of popular media and the development of women's suffrage. Despite arguments that view Turner's vision as inaccurate, the spread of Western values is still evident in America today.

Themes and values of the West reflected in popular media show the frontier's influence on American values. In the film Unforgiven, one of the final scenes is Will Munny walking confidently into a saloon and shooting down several armed individuals single-handedly. This scene strongly reflects the idea of individualism by utilizing the "lone gunman" icon. It is clear that this icon has also been incorporated into American politics, such as with the American war on Iraq. The choice to invade Iraq while facing opposition of other countries clearly illustrates the American emphasis on independent decision-making and therefore, the adoption of Western-based values. Sociologist David Riesman expanded on this notion in his book The Lonely Crowd. Riesman noticed that a shift from the individualistic character of the 19th century to the new idea of a "corporate" economy caused a revival in "heroes like the Lone Ranger, James Dean, and Beat poets like Jack Kerouac and Allen Ginsberg." Again, Riesman shows the modern-day American incorporation of individualistic values of the 19th century, demonstrating the influence of this era.

Furthermore, the development of voting rights for women in the Western frontier shaped the value of legal equality through the rest of America. Historian Dee Brown analyzed the initial victory of women's political rights in Wyoming as one that "opened the way for women to vote... all of which gave hope and inspiration to embattled suffragists in the East." Brown makes it clear that the materialization of true forms of equality and democracy in the West were directly linked to the development of these ideas in the East. Additionally, the enfranchisement of women was a progressive step towards the civil rights era in the 20th century. The victory for women's voting rights in the West therefore led to both women's voting rights in the East, and more recently, the civil rights movement, shaping important American values.

Nevertheless, some historians contend that Turner's perspective on the West is invalid because it does not include the viewpoint of the Native Americans. Although this argument has some merit, Native American accounts of conflicts with whites indicate that Turner is still accurate in presenting the Western frontier as an important factor in shaping American values. For instance, many tribes discussed in Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee conflicted with the whites in how land was viewed - whites viewed the land principally as a way of achieving economic prosperity, whereas the Native Americans felt a more spiritual connection with the land, hence giving it more respect. Clearly, this idea of placing importance in one's individualistic and economic survival connects strongly with other values of Turner's Thesis.

Ultimately, the validity of Turner's Thesis shows how central the Western frontier was to the values of today's America. The Western era truly represented a time of change in American culture when perceptions of modern-day values began to appear, allowing America to develop into the powerful and unique country that it is today.

P.S. - I give my deepest thanks to the teachers, faculty members, and students of Bedford High School. I am so fortunate to have shared a part of my life with such a remarkable group of people, and I will never forget any of you.

MIKE GUANCI

Guance, G-Baby, Guance Bag, Pumpkin

First off, I would like to thank my parents for raising me into the person I am today. Mom for always nagging me to get things done. Even though I didn't like it, you were doing it to help me. Dad for always giving your time up for me whenever I wanted to practice baseball. Nana and Papa for spoiling me rotten and helping me become a better person while watching Braves/Red Sox games on TV. Uncle John for helping me get noticed by college baseball programs. Kathy for being the being the best God Mother anyone could have. Ralph for being the funniest uncle and always remembering my birthday and other minute details. As for friends Chris, "quality without the compromise" sums up the friendship. Luke remember me when you are a big time Hollywood exec. TJ when you become the next Mike Holmgren, I will be in the stands repeatedly booing you. Ashley the one friend I could have a NORMAL conversation with. When I become famous I will be sure to send you a thank you pumpkin. Doug for all the laughs and always being a true friend. Bobby, Machado, Anthony, Chris Mecurio, Chris McNulty, Greg Vazquez, and all my other friends thank you for everything you have been great. As for teachers I would like to thank Ms. Sav for the laughs, helping me with my work, and introducing me to think writing hell. Mr. Sullivan for writing me a recommendation even though MCI Concord will be my future home. Mr. Niven for showing me the flaws in my writing and not being afraid to do it. But also believing I had the skills to write. Mr. Walsh for keeping class interesting with your off the wall jokes. I would also like to thank some of the coaches I have had over the years. Mr. Tom Wright for getting me through the hardest year of baseball in my life. You will be missed. Mr. Byrnes for always motivating me to get better in all of the sports I played. Mr. Pabian for always giving up your time to help me become a better player. Coach Smith for giving me the chance to pitch at the high school level. For anyone I forgot thanks even though I forgot about you.

"Life's like a box of chocolates you never know what you're going to get"

That quote is very true; I just wanted to thank everyone who has been supportive to me since I moved to Bedford. I wanted to thank my Mom and Dad for always being there for me. I wanted to also give thanks to Jon for countless amounts of help with math homework (and patience) and for being so supportive to me during high school. I also would like to thank Mary for always being there to talk to about things. I love all you guys. I wanted to thank Kendall, Taylor and Carson for being very awesome supportive sisters. Zach, Alex, and And Luke: thanks for helping me with bug killing, car issues, and things I was just too clueless to do. I wanted to give Catsi special thanks for being a sister and so much more, for never ending support with all the high school drama and for being a best friend no matter what the issue we are dealing with at the moment. So many good times; I'll never forget the taradactuls and the fact that those suckers are so damn good at backstrokes. Thank you Gregory Vasquez for making me a better person, you gave me a reality check into the real world and helped me countless late nights with my math. I would like to thank Mike Ferro for all those late night chats out in the Sebring and for being such a dork :). I also wanted to thank Miss April Wilson (who just cost me 3 words) for being such a lovely blond and friend. Ashley "you're so pretty" my little clog pal. Thanks to Dstu. Guanci (pal), all my lovely lady friends. Khark (for stealing my name), Ant Ant, Toddy, James Graessle, Wyatt, Tyler Manchester Harrington (III), Cat I, PJ, Antoine, Machado, Bobby (kid your always wrong), Marcus (LBVH!), TJ, Pooley brothers, Nele (all the way in Germany), Eliza and whoever else I forgot. Sorry if you're one of them :(. but thank you everyone, WE MADE IT!!

"Oh butterscotch"

I'm Kevin Harkins. People seem to like me because I am polite and I am rarely late. I like to eat ice cream and I really enjoy a nice pair of slacks. Years later, a doctor will tell me that I have an I.Q. of 48 and am what some people call well you know the rest. After going through old year books and reading the thanks other seniors wrote, I learned on what to do and what not to do. First, writing a long monologue on thanking people can get really lackluster. Next, words in bold or words that are in all CAPITALS seem to catch people's attention. Finally, I think that some one should build the G-Dome. So anyways I think that instead of writing a senior thanks, I will write a story. Um story, right, here goes. setting outside between 2 or 3 and there is one cloud in the sky. The cloud sort of looked like an Eskimo but not when it started to rain. So the mice had to run to a shelter with their cheese bags. Oh snap there goes the bungee cord holding your dignity for reading this. Running out of words but who can but a price on a good piece of literature? Google? Might as well put the word butterscotch in here somewhere. Oh yeah maybe I should let the dogs out, woof woof woof, hey why has it come down to nothing more than apathy? Oh

I know why, why you ask, it's because it's going down. OK, on my thanks now. I guess my parents since they did develop me Props to you mom, dad, brother and sister. Then my friends: A for doing lots of my stuff, Luke for saying the right things at the right time, Perry, Bill, Neil, Dan, David, Rob, and Taec. Next all groups I'm in like soccer, Boy Scout, marching band (actually just drum line), and track. So my play list on iTunes is running out I should wrap this up soon. I guess that I'll go out in a bang since an implosion wouldn't be as loud. Never do anything that you regret because what done is done and nothing can be undone, a burning van. BIG WORD!

SARA HARTWELL

For the past seventeen years Bedford has been our home, now it's time to move on. Many friends have come and gone. It's those who will stay in my life that I will miss the most. I'll always remember those who have been there for me throughout all of hard times, and have seen me at my worst, you're amazing. Thank you for being there, thank you for caring, thank you for everything. It's you who have made high school worth it all. Everyone who helped me grow into who I've become today, thanks. I'll miss you.

Thank you to the family. Mom. For my sarcasm and cheekbone. For the constant fighting and crying and unfinished loads of towel. For letting those unsaid thank yous and I love yous slide. For all the trust, encouragement, support, and money spent at Old Nater. You're an amazing mother, and I love you. Dad. For the Christmas cards that bring me to tears. For letting me decorate. For never getting mad about skipped weekends. For the employment and coaching, official or otherwise. For the long conversations about everything on the way home from The Chateau that I cherish. You never know how much I value our relationship. Love you Kenny. For putting up with me. For always being yourself. For teaching more than high school ever could. The Hills Harringtons. For being so poetically inspiring. For letting me observe. For reminding me that I don't have as many issues as I think. The Drapers. For their ... funny. For the unmatched wit and horrible genes... thanks a lot to Nana Jane and Nana Carol. For being such inspirations. You're so crazy, and I wouldn't have it any other way.

Thank you to the friends. Katie. For enduring constant beatings and hugs. For all the nights we spent in my car. For the box, photo booth, and NYC. For also wanting to be Meg Ryan. For the dozens of classes and grades and friends and teams that we've shared. For your creativity, spontaneity, and belts. I've watched you grow and break out of your shell, and it has made me smile. Thank you for taking initiative and being the first to make fun of me. You started a revolution. I love you, Babaganooosh. Eliza. For appreciating the seasons and the colors that come with them as much as I. For laughing with me, at me, and at everyone else [in French class]. For letting me live vicariously through you, always. For being intelligent, witty, and gorgeously awkward. For wearing the ugly leotard dress and allowing me to begin your eulogy with a Hedburg joke. For three years worth of side-of-the-ice-cream moments. For fading into me. For making this impossibly hard to write. I love you, so much. Tom. For being so endearing when I insult me. For tech. ed. and the smoking peg. For the trips to Boston that are still my favorite days. For The Office addictions. For heart-to-hearts in Sheinfeld's office and elsewhere. For not being able to not tell me anything. For knowing me better than I know myself and having me pegged from the beginning. Thank you for always redeeming yourself. I don't know what I would have done without you (For making the last eight sentences pointless; we are effable). Chris. For band, Madrigal, and crew. For letting me sit with you at lunch sophomore year. For lacrosse, Guster, root beer, and "that's what she said." For being a great friend, a great listener, and most importantly, a spectacular host. For letting me sleep on your couch all those times. Lauren. For never letting me touch my pencil sharpeners in fifth grade. For making middle school so much fun. For Sinatra and Stephen Colbert. For also hating moths, possibly more than I do. Mike. For the aimless drives and indie nights. Cat. For the best summer ever and all the honks. Dan, Perry, Phil, Carl, Dave, Luke, and crew. For Pictionary and appreciation for musical people (Nick, for that one time). Naomi. For donuts, crew, and having much cooler earrings. Sheila/Popasquat. For letting me hang on you through five seasons of lacrosse. For bike camp, tech, and the exit sign.

Thank you to the ladies of the JungleFunTimeHut. To color guard; Meghan, for being better than me; Adrienne & Sophie, for being the next Christine & Katie. To all of the lacrosse teams. To my car, Jane, for being so junky. To math class for a good run. To the common room for being host to the best summer ever. To Facebook for being so addicting. To coffee, for finally being likable. To teachers who've gone above and beyond their job descriptions: Ms. Hallupowski, Mr. Sullivan, Mrs. Sullivan, and Larry Sheinfeld. To surrogate families; the Hoffs, Rosenberys, and Colgans. And to Robbie Neff - it's so funny, I get your own sentence.

To the class of 2007, for shaking it up. I'll really miss you guys. Good luck.

...st of all, I would like to thank my mother for being there for me whenever I needed help. Mum, you are basically the only woman I really like. Dad, thanks for being hard on me. Without the discipline you have given me, I doubt I would be near the person I am to this day. Em, you're quite a good sister, and I will miss you in college.

...ow, I would like to thank my boys. Thank you for being there for me through my surgeries and other stuff. Jeff, we've been running the neighborhood for years, thanks for being there for me.

...thony and Wyatt, we have a ton of funny memories since about high grade, high school would have been strange without you two.

...rro, I'm happy we became friends in Ms. Grogan's class, you're a good person and I appreciate how good of a friend you have been since about eighth grade. Barba, you have been my friend as long as almost anybody. Thanks for all the good times, especially for letting us go to the best private beach on Earth. Bobby, thank God we took tennis lessons together, you made high school extremely fun for me. Todd, you have been my friend the longest of anybody. I still hang out with, thanks for being a good friend to me all these years. Cris, you are definitely the funniest person I know, and you are a true friend to me, thanks my dude. Jacob, I wish you stayed in our school; you are one of my favorite people. Devon, Guanci, you guys are my dudes. Jonny, Jeremy, I love you guys. Chris and Scott, you guys make life fun, thanks for hanging with me. I would like to thank all my teammates, Coach Belcher, and the coaching staff of the football team for giving me so many great memories. Football really helped me mature as a person, and nothing replaces the feeling of a good win. Woody and Antoine, I'm happy I got to know you playing this game. Good luck playing in the future. Manny, Kegan (LBs), good luck next year, have fun. I can not wait to come home for future thanksgiving games with all my friends and watch us improve each year. Thank you to the girls who I am friends with for making high school more interesting. Without all of you guys, I can't imagine how high school would have been, or how I would have turned out as a person. Good luck in the future.

Mom - You've always been there for me, and have sacrificed so much to make me happy, I couldn't be more grateful. You pulled me through the hardest period of my life, and did so with courage and strength, and I will forever be in awe of you. Thanks for enabling me to see the world (and for putting up with my forceful ballroom dancing). Next I'd like to thank my dad for passing down his amazing sense of humor (and groovy dance moves), talking jive, teaching me to always enjoy life, and to strive for greatness, I'll always love you. My big bro, Mike (Meek Fregon), for showing me how to be the worst kid ever, not being able to control your laughter (or bodily functions) at the dinner table, and teaching me that not showering for 3 days straight and walking around in your underwear while your brother has friends over is cool (you truly are so disgusting). My cousin, Ryan (Gueege Master), CHU, for always doing it to me, going on every vacation together, handing, appreciating it, and for making up the best language ever. I would also like to thank my grandmother Mimi (for being like another parent to me), aunts and uncles for always being there to support me, and to all my cousins for being like brothers and sisters, always ready to wrestle and goof around. Ryan S., Phil, and Amanda - for S-ing the D, treating me like a brother, playing Life, taking me to parties, and being the best cruise guest ever/brother (Ryan). Now, for my homedawgs (in no particular order): Steph (Prunella) - SANASSA SANASSA, thanks for always being crazy with me, letting me sleepover countless times, believing in the Charmed ones, taking us all glow blowing Friday nights in middle school, and ignoring me in fifth grade (it's ok, I still love you). Brenna (BAQ, Brenner) - thanks for not knowing/understanding anything pop culture, hating me, playing hide and seek every time we hang out, being the granny you are, dying of laughter in basically every class (especially English junior year), partying with my brother (along with everyone else's), and being one of the three. Lindsay (my Lizzy) - "Wasz up gurl?" You'll always be my soul mate, thanks for always being my source of ridiculous humor (and having the same sick mind as me), providing me with basically all my nicknames, never wanting a relationship, not showering for days at a time (you and my brother really should get together) and always having major SAP. Erin (E-Deminees) - thanks for always wanting to go down de river on de raf, going round the outside with dem buffalo girls, never worrying about it, hating everything, being a romantic, Los Lobsters, and being one of the three. Lara (Da Booty) - thanks for giving me art kits every year for my birthday, disappearing to random countries for months at a time, taking me to Falmouth with Grandma Irma, sailing lessons, and making fun of everyone. Kendra (Carmen) - PREASE, thanks for loving my impersonations and accents, always being too stressed, sitting on Steph's kitchen floor with me to continue "partying" on your birthday, going on college visits and throwing Swedish fish, and never saying no when I ask you to do that face. Maya - thanks for being so messed up on the way to chemistry, telling stories about your dad at parties, forgiving me for pulling your car door off and consequently cutting your mom's hand, playing "We Run This" every time we drive anywhere, and quitting tournament. Mark - thanks for making fun of everyone during math class including a certain teacher we had for freshman and sophomore year, working so hard on history fair (right guys?), and always being late with me in my car everyday. Wyatt - thanks for making strange noises in Spanish, trading gossip for homework, and losing your wallet then yelling at me. Nick - thanks for being my next-door neighbor, always trading answers, and having the coolest birthday parties when we were young. I did not mention everybody, and for that I am eternally sorry! You all made these high school years wicked awesome (ked), I'll miss the heck outta you guys.

CAT IWANCHUK

To everyone who has ever lent me a hand, given me an ear to talk to, a few good laughs, or a shoulder to lean on, thank you. First of all, my family deserves all the thanks in the world. Mom and Dad, you've been there for me, helping me grow up and supporting/putting up with me all the way through. Button and Aiyee, I love you guys. I couldn't have asked for a better set of brothers to keep family dinners/events/bearable, pick on Mom and Dad, and be silly with. Willie, Tuxie, you're my boys. Caitlin and Kelsey, thank you for playing turtle, beach trips, and celebrating Christmas with my family.. Bucky brother's forev. Blair, for being absolutely ridiculous. I never stopped laughing when we were together, from hockey and basketball games, to fun times in the car and bad times in the car. Allison Gramonlini!, HOLLERR! For knowing each other only this year, we've had so many good times together; I can't wait for the ones to come! Alisha, and Eliza, for the good times at BDC. "May we attend the gym wit you". Olga, thank you for being a cute Russian neighbors and parking in senior parking. Good luck next year. Thank you KAAACC and Pink Panthers for many, many good times and exclusive sleepovers. To the cheerleaders and my lax buddies, thank you for hilarious practices and after sports activities/sleepovers. Bedford Farms girls, this is for everyone I'm working with now and everyone that I've worked with in the past, you all have made working at BF such and blast. Special thanks to Dave and Mr. V, probahly the coolest bosses in the world. Mrs. Jordan, thank you for all the help and effort that you have put in to making me a successful student. Besides the actually learning part, I loved working with you and I always looked forward to your class. Last but certainly not least, I'd like to thank my best buddy Melissa and all the students in the LABBB room, I've had so much fun with you all! There are so many others that I need to thank. Anyone, teachers and friends who had a positive influence on my life or ever made me laugh, you know who you are, thank you. and I wish you the best of luck in the future

Wow. High school was freakin' sweet. I have so many people to thank, so here it goes (in no particular order, sorry in advance if I forget anyone). Neil - for doing like every project ever with me, and for letting me beat you 95% of the time at ping-pong. Michelle - for procrastinating much less than me and for helping me survive Junior year. Most importantly, thanks for being 100000 percent absolutely awesome. Ryan - for saving my butt 8453 times. Ashley - for producing so many awesome parties, and for making sure my paranoia didn't get the best of me. Dan - for kicking Neil's butt math style. Tony - for the Grammy award winning track, "Math will punch you in the face." Christine, Eliza - for always being there to laugh at my terrible vocal skills. Bill, Andy, Jay - Fonda. Nuff said. Tom - for making sure someone made fun of me for everything weird I did. Kevin - for making me feel a lot funnier than I really am. Randy - for being in the pit and giving someone for the injured to talk to. David - for never ceasing to be wacko. Marching Band - for giving me a place to practice giving inspirational speeches, for allowing me to throw my boxers into the fire, and for those twice-weekly blood drives. Cross Country Team - for a truly one of a kind athletic experience. Math Class - for rockin' out a math class full of funny Huff stories and adorable Huff children. Mr. Huff - for always being there to make sure I'm awake. Mrs. Sullivan - for letting us interrupt your life, barge in on your house uninvited, and raid your wonderful garden in the middle of the summer. And even then you fed us. Mrs. Luke - for distributing posters of my idol: Carol. Darnull - for being cute, funny, goofy, annoying, and absolutely anything except normal. For all of the time everyone else above was not around, you were my only entertainment, and I have to say you were pretty dam (haha) successful. My Mom - for not letting me walk out of the house without money, for getting much more stressed than me about school, and for not tearing up my papers Junior and Senior years. My Dad - for knowing absolutely everything ever known about Math and Science. On a serious note - I'd like to thank absolutely everyone here (and probably some people who aren't here) for four wonderful High School years. Many people have helped me in very small to very big ways, and to avoid getting gushy, I will say that I truly thank everyone for making High School so much better than anything before it.

First of all, I would like to give honor and thanks to God, for without him life is impossible. Mom thanks for always being there and for making all of the sacrifices that you've made. Dad (Baharri) thanks for coming into our lives and making them so much better. Dad (Eric) & Grandma Vernell thanks for always being there. Nique thanks for always being the one I could talk to. You really should me how mean girls could be, and how much they love to hate. Cyrus thanks for being the lil bro that always bothers me. You know I love you even though we fight all the time. Grandma Wilhemina thanks for being the glue to our family, for w/o you our family wouldn't be what it is. Grandpa Lee & Ernest, thanks for making my child hood so much fun and enriching my life. R.I.P. and see you again some day. To all of my Ak girls, thanks for making those horrible to years worthwhile. Y'all know we stayed wild'n out... But on the real, the people I grew up with in Zero Beach (Vero) y'all will always be apart of me and my memories. To the entire Pickett family, thanks for being an addition to our family. We may not be blood, but we're as close as it can get. Akeyla, Katie, Kandace, Mychael, Britney, JC, Omni and BHS cheerleaders y'all made these two years very interesting... David, you remember the pants-ing thing...hahaha.. Still not funny.. But all of y'all made my summer real interesting... decent, decent.. KD, umm.. Are me + David goin out??? To Mr. Zellner and Ms. Flannery, y'all are two great people and are truly inspirational. To anyone who I forgot, my bad.. To the c/o 2007 "WE FINALLY MADE IT SEE Y'ALL WHEN WE WALK... "Our loveliest gifts aren't confined to boxes and bows, but stand before us - wide eyed with the wonders of the world."

Maman and Papa- for everything you've done for me. I know it's more than I can ever put into words. Papa- For early morning pancakes, Harvey, insight, camping trips, nature, and knowledge Maman- For family dinners, zest, elegance, antiques, and warmth. Emmet- For Saturday morning video games, making me laugh, music, and always being there. I will always look up to you, even if it no longer manifests itself in me copying your every move. Lindsay- I will always remember loud music, boys, driving, concerts, late nights, facebook, cloves, neil-dawg, Derek O., and of course, our dazzling trip to the mall after powder puff - umm, can I please have my phone back? Thank you for your sense of humor, our excellent gossip, and for filling my notebook with lyrics. That must be Nigel with the Brie. Wyatt- you have this thing called potential - your life will get BETTER, than it is now. For US History, for pulling Lindsay's underwear out of her backpack, and for always, always, ALWAYS making me laugh (yes, I do 'gobble you up.'). You always get what I'm saying and see what I'm seeing. You are my favorite person to get food with. But I know you know that. Amy- thank you for being my outlet junior year, and for always being the person I can talk to. Pam- for spending every snow day with me and reading all of my books - for being the best neighbor. Kelsey- Thank you for your sense of style, California, and being yourself, always. I can always count on you to listen to my bitter venting, and to always be up for a shopping trip. You are elegant, eloquent, and absolutely gorgeous- you will always flourish. Max- neil-dawg, London bridge, "I've never had that before, you think I'd like it?" Thank you for listening to my father stones, for always laughing in awkward situations, and for knowing every word to every rap song (well all the good ones anyways.) I was like SO messed up. Steph- For always listening, always paying attention to the little things, and always giving excellent advice. You are funnier and more eloquent than you give yourself credit for. Kendra- for sharing my dream of going to CA. hockey games, late nights at Kevin's, and for always appreciating a hurmt CD - our music goes way back to freshman year. Thanks for all of the classes and times at BF. Doug- for that night we drove around, for all the times you didn't kill me and Wyatt (without a paddle,) and for math class last year. Thank you for being you. Alex A- Thank you for long car rides and Saturday morning breakfasts. For understanding Audrey Hepburn, and for listening to me talk when I know you have just as much to say. Eliza- Thank you for history fair (hot chocolate, talking, being far too tired, and knowing that Katie had no excuse not to take the project to school), BDC, and being most likely to have a crush on our psych teacher. Katie n- French Class, Bedford Farms, Chambers, and History fair - for always putting on the OC, for always talking instead of doing our project, and for hating Joan Baez. Erin- Bedford farms, locker buddies, and always being ready to laugh - thank you for understanding people in the same way I do Todd- bleacher painting, French class, and Calculus (even though you left me.) Thank you for always being ready to do something. Brenna- For barbies, mall-ness, splat, and all the other board games we played. I know you're jealous that I have calculus when you get to go home. Sammy- For the years of dance together, our winter trips to the nutcracker, and the opportunity to watch you dance. You shine on and off of stage. James- Thanks for endless phone conversations, RAW' proposals, and being my semi date. Ashley T- you were my best friend in 5th grade - thank you for still being able to make each other laugh. Sally- for making me into a complete California girl and helping me in countless other ways. Thank you Mrs Sullivan and Mr Boscher

Dad, thanks for always being there for me – I couldn't have it through high school without you. You definitely hold the record for chaperoning the most spring-break trips! Mom, thank you for your kindness, encouragement, and endless proof-reading. Dad, thank you for being clean, inspiring, cooking, fixing anything, and for always making fun of Mom! Ryan, you've been my companion in nearly everything over the past 18 years, and it's a hell of a ride. Even though we've fought over who gets to drive and driven each other crazy over nearly everything, you really are my best friend. History fair, marching band, and XC wouldn't have been the same without you. Thanks for letting me call you "Pupido," even though you easily are the "better" twin. It's scary to think that if we marry twins, our children will be half-brothers. Mom, your red electric car, thank you for making it up the hill on record Rd. 9 out of 10 times and for the attention you get from men and construction workers. Mrs. Sullivan, I'll never forget your dress on Bradstreet, writing endless papers and works-in-progress, your donut and bagels. Thanks for making my high school career absolutely "salient." Mr. Low, you inspired within me a love of music. The four years I had with you were incredible, from my first Frigal Dinner as the "flamboyant" freshman to Oklahoma! Mr. Carter, thanks for four awesome years in marching band, jazz band, wind ensemble, even though I don't really play a band instrument. Mr. Maffa, thanks for being a simply great musician, and for unforgettable times from fourth grade to Disney to Italy! Jynette, thanks for being the person I love spending time with the most and for never calling me Ryan! You're amazing, and I'll always remember the great times we've had together, from prom to phone calls to playing Frisbee at Sun Microsystems. Ben, good times on the sidelines in marching band, tennis, Spanish, runs up Blueberry Hill, and great stories. Tony Gong: Your style, music, and name are simply unrivaled. Christine, Katie Neff, for great times in marching band, Photo with Sheinfeld, tournament, and the musicals. Chris (Nutter), Dave (Thor), Kevin (Quince), Gabe (Antonio), Luke (Russ), and Tony (Abacus) – thanks for making the drumline hard, and for surviving Nash and Jim. Lauren and Caitlin, thanks for making fun of me and letting me drive the "bus!" Thanks Tom, Kelly, Pallavi, Kristine, Adrienne, Sophie, Rhiana, and everyone else for making marching band memorable. Dan, Carl, and Nick, for being insane soccer players. Cheb and the XC Team for running around in the snow, playing football during captains' practices in the mud, and limitless runs to the rock. Madrigal past and present, the Track team, and countless others – you've all given me memories that I'll never forget.

person I am today. DAD – you're my hero. Thanks for being the cool dad I can brag about, always pushing me to achieve my goals, and encouraging me through the tough times. I love you both so much! RANDY – where do I begin? First of all, you are the most handsome person I know. Thanks for being my best friend, for putting up with all my teasing, and being such a cool kid. Your terrible jokes and brotherly advice have meant so much to me, and I hope that we always stay as close as we are now! Now on to friends, like BEN!! I've had an awesome time hanging out with you in hand and XC, and now tournament and the show, not to mention freaking out about AP Bio and US History (remember Ismael?) We've both somehow ended up developing the inability to put together coherent sentences, but at least we've had a blast! CARL – for all the good times in band, buying bake sale cookies and losing money, skiing at Wachusett, nearly getting killed by a semi in the worst rainstorm ever, and just hanging out! We've had some good times – thanks for being such a good friend. MICHELLE – it's been great getting to know you over the past two years, between Wind Ensemble, Wachusett, XC, bleacher painting, all that good stuff! And Walden Pond – Mrs. Sullivan never knew what hit her! MEGAN – thanks for all the "explosive" moments, being the cool kid who always knew the answers, and for being such a great friend. STACEY – thanks for crazy times in Inquiry, Italy, and all the interesting times in Spanish! CHRIS – thanks for Wind Ensemble, 5 awesome years in Marching Band, and doing every possible crew job in the school. DAVE – Wachusett, band, that random Taking Back Sunday concert. LAUREN – thanks for the crazy times at DMA (really strange lunches...), for being such a great drum major, and all that good stuff! CHRISTINE and KATIE – for making fun of me, being really funny people, and all the good times in band. MOLLY – great times in Italy, Madrigal, the show – thanks for being so crazy! CATLIN – thanks for making me and Lauren do all those backwards turns, making fun of us, and being "perfect." XC people: SAM, DELL, KATIE, CHRIS – stay "lucky!" Thanks to CHEB – the greatest Kenyan alive, and FELKER – for 5 amazing years in band. I'm sorry if I missed anyone – I've had a blast BHS, thanks for everything!

"Laugh when you can, apologize when you should and let go of what you can't change. Love deeply and forgive quickly take chances."

Many people have given me support over the years, starting with my Dad. Thanks for giving me so much advice on everything and always being there. Michele thanks for giving me all those life lessons and always seeing the bright side of things. Mom, I want you to know that I love you and am really happy that I have been able to tell you more things lately and feel that we have grown closer over the past few years. Art thanks for staying neutral. Devon, you are the greatest combo a girl could have, sister and best friend. I can tell you anything, big or little, and I know you will keep it to yourself and you give the best advice. I have to do this one last time and bring it up but... "OH BOY OH BOY OH BOY", oh yeah and how can we forget how the no-smile laugh started... Cheerio, we have been through a lot, and are really glad that we did. You are one of my best friends in the whole wide world and always keep me laughing with your evolving "ghetto" talk of "YO TURN THAT SHIT UP!" Ape Face, we have been strong friends through all these years, you have always been there for me and are glad that we have had such good times. Blair, I am very proud that you have turned into a girl since we all started hanging out. You taught me some valuable lessons of being tough, and have also protected me. I mean come on that's why we are friends!! Eliza, we have been friends since forever, and I hope it stays that way. I am very grateful that we were there for each other during all of the hard times when we needed to get away. My favorite thing was walking to BF with you in the summers. Pookies, one of the best summers I had was when we hung out like everyday on the common and did the most random things. "Soccer girls", I am very glad that we all became friends this year, (and I am still very happy that we won the bet Amanda!) Alex, Zach, Luke, you are the best brothers an older sister could ask for. You guys always help me out with car stuff and bugs, which I appreciate a lot. Taylor, Kendall, Carson, I have always wished that I had sisters and then I got the best ones in the world! I am really glad that we all get along so well and can all be there for each other. Thank you all for being there, I love you all very much, and will miss you tons.

This is what it all comes down to. A short piece built on nostalgia, thanks, and the thought that I may be bald when I reread this thirty years from now. Mom, I am so proud of you for going back to school to get your Masters, and for being an encouraging, loving mother. Dad, I will always remember driving to soccer games with you, and I am ceaselessly grateful of the life opportunities that you continue to create for me. Erik, Kiwi will be your cat when I go to college. Make sure she doesn't pee on my things while I'm gone. Thank you Grandpa Kurt, Grandma Anita, Farfar Anders, and Farmor "Ja-Ja" Britta. Thank you boys—the sports teams, the band members, and the summer donut squad. Thank you girls—the pretty girls, the smart girls, and the pretty smart girls. Thank you teachers of curriculum, teachers of life. Thank you coaches, role models. Dank u vel Marijn, Andrew, Eli Elyse, en Femke. High school has been a road of peaks and valleys, highs and lows. I have stumbled on that road many times, but through God's grace I have arrived at an altogether higher point than where I started. The road continues now, to higher altitudes, loftier ambitions, and greater challenges. Thank you God for putting me in motion; for giving me the trek. Also, thank you Wal-Mart for your brilliant cost-cutting strategies that will save me millions of dollars on all of my everyday needs.

"Be people!" – Bobby McConnell

I would first like to thank my mother and father for their support and guidance in everything I've done. I'm the person I am today because of the sacrifices you've made for me. Mom, pops, love ya. Grandmother, thank you for putting me in place whenever I stepped out of line, and for making me breakfast every morning. The rest of my family, you know who you are, thanks for anything you've ever done for me, it probably meant a lot. Malcolm, my dog, for respecting me in a way no human could ever respect another. And to my friends, my best and funniest memories were with you. I wish I could keep you forever. Guanci, Bobby, Jarvis, Tony, Devon, Machado, Douglas IV, and Thomas John, thanks for all the great times we spent together. Everyone else, I wish I could name you. I know you're my friend, but I'm being charged by the word. Dr. Gregory House, for always being there, Tuesday nights at 9. And finally, to all the girls that spoke to me, thanks, it meant more than I played a very important part of my life and I love you all very much. Nikki and Alli- you two especially are very important to me and have acted as sisters towards me and I appreciate that very much. I want you to know that I love you both. Sammy- you and I have been best friends since we were in kindergarten, and although we are spending less time together please know that we will always be best friends. Lisa-thanks for being completely out of you mind but 100% sane at the same time. Oh, by the way sorry for not inviting you to my party. Kaylyn- thanks for being a great friend. It seems like every time you open your mouth something hilarious comes out and I end up laughing hysterically. Michelle- thank you for being only sane one, without you we would fall apart. Also thanks for sharing a bed with me in Florida and sorry that I slapped you. Katie W. - thanks for sharing almost every class with me and actually putting up with me. And thanks for the gum. Marching Band- you are so important to me and I appreciate all the time and energy that everyone puts in and the respect that you give to me as a Drum Major. Also Randy and Ryan thanks for being my co-drum majors and also being great friends. Mr. Felker- thanks for not only being a great teacher but a good friend. You have taught me so much and I really appreciate everything. Also Jim and Nash, although for the first three of band you scared the crap out of me, thanks for everything that you have done. Softball Team- softball has been one of the most important parts of my life so thank you all for sharing that with me. Especially the Florida ten: Michelle, Lisa, Kaylyn, Katie S and W, Megan, Jen, Bridget, and Charlene. Also Kelly and Mr. Wilson you have been great, and thanks for everything. Finally I would like to thank all of my teachers for everything that they have done. Especially Ms. Giusti, you have very helpful, and thanks for putting up with all of us. I am sure there are many other people who deserve to be thanked so if I forgot you sorry and thanks, you could ever know, fo sho. It's been fun, peace out.

I would like to thank my mom for making me do my college stuff early, and my dad for fixing every piece of technology that I broke. I would like to thank my brother for all of his support, and his great suggestions and chats when I needed help. Thank you Nick for living in my house for ten years, getting me to do my homework so you could check yours with it, increasing my halo skills, and for your "big nick throw." Thank you Perry for your unique ideas, getting angry for no reason, stocking my fridge, cheering on Nick, and for coming over my house just to get a soda. Thank you Neil for hugs in the hall everyday, being Indian, and sleeping on your side. Thanks LD for saying the strangest stuff and being crazy all the time. Thank you David for fixing my computer like seven times and for getting toolled on constantly. Thank you Lauren for making the lunch conversations more interesting than ever before. And finally thank you Senior Bio people, because that class is crazy thanks to us. And thank you to anyone I forgot.

BRIANA LEWIS

First, I like to thank God Almighty for guiding me through life, never forsaking me and knowing that He will provide. Mom, even though I don't always show it, I do appreciate your input and your overprotection. You have a strong heart. Dad, your support has made me work hard for what I want in life and I thank you for that. Where ever you go, I love you...stay safe. Hill, you constantly (also unintentionally) remind me to act like the type of person I want to be and to stay a good role model. The Lewis' and the Whites, I love you and all of your unique insights of life and I will treasure them always. The Cross Country Team: I love how you all keep reminding me to not take life so seriously all the time and how you keep me laughing. Cheb: Always know that your hard work pays off. 'A friend loves at all times' (Proverbs 17:17) I just want to let you all know before hand that if I don't mention your name, it doesn't mean I care less because I understand that it's a blessing to have friends. Jenn, you are so much fun to be around. Together we rule the tennis courts. Amber, I feel like we've been friends forever-let's stay that way. Elizabeth, talking to you is like a breath of fresh air through the craziness in life. LaDarrian, Matt, and Jordan: you three are few of my closest guy friends and it's a hlesing to have you all in my life. Audrey, I love how you make me laugh (Do You Mind?) Teachers: Mr. Felker: You are a better band director than you think. Your hilarious quotes are unforgettable. Mr. Berlino: Your insight on the stories helped me to comprehend more and opened my eyes. To anyone who came into my life: No matter how long you were around me, your impression and insight is with me. Thank you, Briana

First of All thanks to my Mom for always encouraging me and being there for me. My Dad for pushing me to do my best in every aspect of my life and teaching me right from wrong. And my brother Cam for being my best friend and personal punching bag. Love you guys. Thank you Douglas Stewart Howie the fourth for being a great friend and a true champion. Jeff McGrath for keeping me out of trouble when possible and being a stellar dude. Bobby McConnell for showing me the lighter side of Judaism and the condition known as asthma. Wyatt Hudzik for some intense rap battles. Todd for always keeping my balls clean and shaft properly aligned. Anthony Santos, Mike Ferro, for being shoulders to cry on. Mike Guanci, Chris Larsen, Devon Ryan, Mike Barbacano, Chris Mercuno, Devon Londo, Luke Jarvis, Rob & James Pooley for being solid individuals and good friends. Jeremy Cogs for providing cheese-its. Greg Vasquez for yelling louder then any man ever should. Amanda, Courtney, Steph D, Maya, Kendra and company for saving us many a sausage fest. And finally thanks to anyone I missed its nothing personal I just don't like you as much.

BOBBY MCCONNELL

Wow. I am a senior already? Hmm... I am starting to look the pa but by the way I act you'd never know it. Hey DAD... remember

Bar mitzvah you told me I get to do a lot of new firsts? Like the lawn mower, provided it was cutting the grass. Well I have there done that. I can even drive a real car now, don't worry me to drive between 7:20 and 2; I am in school. And MOM. re do I start? If I haven't talked back recently and we are on terms, than thank you for everything you have done including g me too and from practices, and bringing me my homework I forgot it, like everyday...lol, and maybe my room could have a little cleaner or my clothes a little nicer, but that's what es me your son. JAMIE- I guess giving you rides wasn't THAT his year. Pretty soon you will be writing one of these too, and will have to deal with mom when it comes to college. Good But anyways, thank you for being a good sister and putting with me sometimes, and the rest of the time, I don't know. G- it all started in 5th grade. Playing tennis, drinking juice s on the way- Middle school, me you and Wyatt, before and dances- we were quite the players. Then the good times going ue ribbon after baseball, or playing video games or hanging at house. It's been good, thanks man. FERRO- 5th grade again. uled the bus, man, with our "sex" talks, we were so cool. Then fake fights, wow, and to think we still have those fake fights etimes. Then sleepovers, after we made fireworks and filmed here are too many good times to name, but I am sure we will plenty of them to talk about another time, thanks for the ories. WYATT- We have grown apart over the past 4 or 5 years, we are still good friends, and all the way up through middle ol, we were best friends. All those times playing basketball at house, I was Reggie Miller, you were Allen Iverson. Half the e, you'd tell me you were going home, and leave; you always e back. Doug made us the trio in 5th grade; we dominated school plays. Thanks for the Eggo waffles. I will never forget e times, thank you. BARBA- Best friends one day, enemies the t. Haha, well we turned out just fine, I had a lot of good times nming, playing racing games, or playing cards, and then having with cars, once we were old enough. Thanks. LUKE- Always w you, but we didn't really become good friends until we had truggle through the same classes together. A.P. Bio and History (stly Bio) tested our will, and we made it through. Those are ininitely times I will never forget. And thanks for coming and ying soccer with me at all the girl's soccer games, if only we had our skills, we were superstars. Good luck with your film eer and thanks for helping make my last two years awesome. To ny other boys, sorry if you aren't above, I don't have the space, thanks for the good times Larsen, Guanci, Tony, Anthony, Jeff, ny (watch out! Buffalo!), Mach (the beef dropped?), Devon, ld. ASHLEY T- Definitely my closest friend as a girl. It all started ause Nick and I were determined to prove you hated me, cept ended up being friends. From talking at your sister's grad party going to Coldstone's, and being the one girl I could take to Echo lge...lol...thank you for being there and listening to me like rring my own voice. ALISHA and CAT- Thanks girls, awesome es to my first two dances, I hope I wasn't too bad either. Thank s. KENDRA- Lane school, trying to get the best spot on the bus, ing my backpack at the bus stop, haha. Animal farm, 10th grade, y funny, still not sure if I really did anything wrong...you were od neighbor...thanks. KRISTA- thanks for being such a good nd while you were here, even after you left, try not to talk with r hands though lol. Thanks to the rest of the girls too: Court- , Amanda, Juliette, April. tly my neighbors...or 2nd families? THE STRACHANS- Thank t Mr. And Mrs. Strachan for having me over for dinner all the e. Those football games in the backyard were very intense, and never forget the Christmas breakfasts, although I have missed a past couple, I plan to keep going to them on the years I can. EY, definitely one of my best friends since the day you moved in; matter what sports we played, or what games, we were always ense and had a lot of fun. COLLEEN, you are like the sister I n't fight with, lol. Staying up all night, long after Joey went to playing Scattegories was always entertaining. Jen, or Jenny, you older than Joey, Colleen, and I, but you still managed to have with us, and we had fun with you. Thanks. THE RUDDS- Sorry, but not least, although I am way over the word maximum and I gotta make this short. House always clean, but you still didn't mind when I made a mess, ALEXIS, thanks for being such a cool babysitter all those years, and ASHLEY, thank you for taking my other baby sitters off of my hands, when our parents were at work, and MR. RUDD, please don't paint me black and white and give me a tail! Thank you.

To my parents: thank you mom and dad for supporting me for the last 17 years and doing everything you could to provide me with everything I've ever needed or wanted. As ungrateful as I may have been on a number of occasions, I want to let you know that I really appreciated all that you've done and I love you both. Vin: you may have yelled at me as a coach, picked on me as a brother, and given me a hard time just for fun, but you always were there when I needed you. You have helped make into me the person I am today and for that, I'm extremely grateful and I love you. Lindsey: when things were good you were my best friend, when things were bad, we fought like there was no tomorrow, but no matter what you're the best sister I could ever ask for and I love you. Sean and Christine: My siblings love you guys and I can see why, thanks for being like a brother and a sister. Doug: since the bus stop in 3rd grade you have been one of my best friends, the short nerdy kid with glasses and the pudgy kid with the cowlick. Sure we have fought our fair share of times but you're like a brother to me and we hold down the block. Tyler: The first six years of school I spent in your class, and you were the first kid I met in preschool. Not a thing has change since then and I'm glad it hasn't because who else would I play Madden with. Thanks for being one of my best friends and always looking out for me. Anthony: Sheena and Lindsey's basketball games, "excuse me did you say something?" Friends: I don't want to forget anybody but here goes, Bobby, Wyatt, Tony, Ferro, T.J., Todd, Jonny and Ryan (DB's), Brendan, Tommy Mac, Mercurio, Machado, Devon, Kegan, Barbacano, Scott, Antoine, Manny and Woody you guys are my boys and I want to thank for making high school great and something I'll never forget, especially to those of you who were my team mates. To the girls: Amanda thanks for being my first girlfriend back in eighth grade even though I was goofball, Courtney for being a great friend, Cassy I have barely known you for a year but you became one of my best friends, and Blair for loving me. Finally to the coaching staff of the football team and Coach Belcher you were a great coach and football will always be one of the things that I am proud to say I was a part off, thank you. Good luck to everyone in the future.

Mom, thanks for all of the great meals and cookies, and for everything. Thanks to my three sisters, Kristen, Haley, and Lori for always being there for me and for putting up with me for all these years. Thanks to all of my friends for all of the great times and fun we have had, Ferro-for all the rides and good times in the van. Doug-for always making me laugh. Anthony-for being the guy to always shoot down everyone's ideas. All the girls-for making high school fun and interesting. Thanks to all of my coaches who always pushed me to my potential and who have made me a better person. Thanks to everyone else that I didn't mention, I definitely could not have made it this far without everyone.

First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents. Thank you for helping me to grow into the person I am today, for coming to all my games and performances, for your unconditional love and support, and for believing in me. To my friends: you have all made a tremendous impact on my life. I can't imagine these past years without you. Thanks for the movie nights, for MKA, for singing, for late night ice skating, crazy dancing, scavenger hunts, molten lava cakes, car chats on the way to Lexington, and for always being there for me. Thank you for taking too many pictures, making me laugh so hard I cry, and for creating amazing memories that we will never forget. Volleyhugs: thank you for an incredible season and past four years. Madrigal: "got milk." Thank you for playing on playground, jumping on beds, and chicken parm. JSMM, the best team ever. TOP: although nothing matters it's been so much fun. Thanks to 02359 for the best summers. To my teachers, coaches, and everyone else that has made an impact on my life: thank you for all that you've done, you've made my high school experience unforgettable.

Momma, thanks for being perfect and loving and always wanting to help no matter what. I love you for being understanding and being my best friend and trying to buy our love. Papa (poppy seed), thanks for being my coach and teaching me useful and also useless things about life. Thanks for driving me to school, missing work for me, and making me laugh everyday of my life. Erica thanks for dancing with me in the kitchen and always being there for me. Maura: thanks for inspiring me and opening up my future. Allie thanks for letting me follow in your footsteps and helping me out with all the things I'm bad at. Robby thanks for laughing at my jokes and being a crazy kid. I'm sorry for not moving out of the house fast enough for you.
Eliza, thanks for constantly correcting me, taking me to see Shrek, showing me the glory of stalking people online and eating hotdogs. Thanks for being my best friend and telling me gossip (over and over again). I hope you finally get your uggas and coach purse and the jacket that goes to wherever. Christine, thanks for being my best friend and driving around hour after hour in your car listening to music. Thanks for hitting the box again and laughing at my horrible jokes. Thanks for not getting sick of me (or at least not showing it). You guys mean so much to me. Love you pooks. Cat thanks for making me feel good about myself because of all the hons you got walking down the street. The Stephmeister, thanks for being my best friend and making some darn good waffles. Lauren Mazel, thanks for French class and sharing the same love for Milo. Tom, for laughing at me for laughing at myself. Chris, for madrigal and marching band and touching my elbow. Erin, for Bedford farms once a year and coffee and cup cone combos, and reading the bible during batman. Maya, for work, French class, putting up with me and Eliza, making me laugh, and slacking off with me. Max, for dancing all the time and talking too fast about your cruises. Caitlin, for letting me make fun of you but still being my friend. I really will miss you. Megan, obviously for being perfect and complaining with me. Olive, for your laugh and funny stories. Lauren and the Krings. I'm sorry for being annoying. Sophie and Adrienne, for taking me and Christine seriously and for thinking I'm funny. Dan and crew for pictionary. Caity for showing me how to waste time after school. Thanks Drew, and Bridgeman, Mr. Sheinfeld. I hope you're reading through all the thanks right now, looking for your name. Thanks for being an inspiring teacher and tolerating us more than you should have and enjoying trail mix as much as I do. Mr. Niven thanks for making school fun and giving me a class to look forward to and making me think I'm good at something. Mr. Berlino thanks for taking a chance on us and trusting that everything will work out in the end. Mr. Sunderland and Mrs. Gill thanks for teaching me how to like History.

I would like to start off by thanking my family. Mom, thank you for everything. You have always been my #1 fan. You believe in me and encourage me to follow my dreams, no matter how big or out of reach they seem. I love you more than anyone else in the whole world and I don't know what I would do without you. Dad, I cherish all the times we have together, whether it be car rides, yard work, meeting for coffee, or just sitting together. I am so thankful for having you in my life. You have helped me become who I am; you have been by my side, helping, guiding, and believing in me my whole life. I love you Steve & Sherri, you both have taken me in as if I was one of your own. I love you both and I am so grateful to have you in my life. Thank you for always loving and supporting me. Amy, you're more than my sister, you're my best friend. Thanks for all our talks, all your advice, making me laugh, keeping me out of trouble, and always being there for me. You are the one person I can always count on, I love you so much. Told, David, and Christie, you three have taught me so much about family and love and how important it is to have brothers and sister that you can always count on for support. I love the three of you so much, and I am so lucky to have you as my little brothers and sister. Bradley and Stephanie, you are my shining stars. I love you more than you will ever know. You bring so much happiness into my life and I am so lucky to be able to watch you grow up. I wish all five of you the best of luck. Follow your heart and follow your dreams and you will succeed. I love you Auntie Joan. Thanks for always believing in me and supporting me. I don't know where I would be without you. I love you. Thanks to the rest of my family for being so supportive and great. I love you all. Dannie, you have been my best friend since I can remember. I treasure all the times we've had together. I'll never forget Backstreet Boys, Just in callin' Dominic, Hanson, staying up all night, and the time I punched myself in the face and my nose bled! Despite what happens in the future, you have had a huge impact on who I am today and I love you so much. Ashlee, you are one of my best friends and I don't know where we would be if we hadn't found each other. Thank you for all the fun times (never forget the circus! haha) Good luck in everything you do, and remember I'll always be here for you. Love you. Sarah, my best friend. There is no one else in the world who understands me like you do. We have so much fun together, whether we have something planned or we're just lounging on the beach. SPINNNNN! Through thick and thin. ILY. Nate, where do I even begin? You are my other half. I have more fun with you than I do with anyone else. Jigger what? Snickers bar, trying to teach me to drive suck, parties, and all the other times that we've peed our pants laughing. You are the best friend anyone could ask for. Thanks for always sticking by my side, love you. Stacey, high school would not have been the same without you. Volleyball, lacrosse, driving, Raptors, freaking about stupid things, watching movies at IAM and gossiping. Thanks for opening your house up to me, and always making sure I'm fed. I love you so much. JulieP, so glad we got so close this year. I love you to death. Volleyball, party, hot tub, falling, laughing, dancing and listening to music, you are my crazy chica and I love you. Jennifer hugs. Betsey, volleyball, lunches, taking pictures in the bathroom at prom. We are very much the same person and I love you so much for always cheering me up and making me have such a good time whenever I'm with you. Steph M-H, remember that time you walked into the bus at Wayland? Christine, "Sara" ~ I was just kidding... haha you always make me smile. Um, THAT'S MINE! I'm glad we have become close. Thanks for always being a great friend. Volleyball Girls YEAH VOLLEYBALL! Varsity Lacrosse, I have so much fun with all of you, thanks for four great seasons. Raptors! Everyone else: Kristen, Christina, Amber, Alisha, Steph D, Anand, Olga, Shaun, KSars, HottieC, and Caity. CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2007! WE DID IT AND GOO.

"I have to laugh, because I've outsmarted even myself." ~ Cad-dyshack
"Here's to goodbye tomorrow's gonna come too soon." ~ Eve 6
First I would like to thank my parents, you have always been there for me and you have pushed me to be the best I can be. MOM, thanks for the all hours you have spent cooking for me, they were much appreciated. Even though I just like giving you are hard times I know that you are always right. DAD, thanks for always fixing everything I have broken, and for always being there for me at soccer, coaching and cheering me on. BRITNI- Oh my! How you can make me laugh. Even though we do not agree on everything you are still my best friend. Bippy, thanks for always lending me your clothes and giving me advice on the "important" things in life. You have introduced me to more songs, movies, and new experiences than anyone else. And thank you so much for not liking soccer. You are my sanity. "Check ya later" KELSEY- You are the coolest little sister ever. Thank you for being a pain in my butt, you always are keeping my life interesting. I love how you are nothing like me, it is my favorite part about you. FRIENDS- There are just too many good times to remember because when ever I am with you guys I have fun. Soccer, parties, football games, getting ready for dances, lying by the pool, sleepovers, shopping, the movies, Bedford Falls and just driving around. There is never a dull moment with you guys. Alisha thank you for always finding some way to make things interesting, we are always on the same brain wave. Amanda thank you for always smiling and being there for me. Jules I just have one word to say "wow" ha-ha. Ashley thanks helping me eat all those gorilla cookies. And Jeff thanks for putting up with me, you are the best. Thanks to everyone for all the great memories.
SOCCER TEAM- Ladies, you made high school so much more enjoyable, we had so many good times together, whether we won or lost. Thanks for the huskies home they were insane, we sounded terrible but we still managed to pull off some really great songs. It would never have been the same without all of you in my life.

DAVID PACHECO

What's happenin' its David stopping by to give my thanks. I'm not trying to take up all your time I'm just here to do what I gotta do. This one goes out to all my fellas out there that got that same mind set as me, that's MOB and that's Dan, Harold, Chris and Brian. It's been a good four years for me though between failure and success. Life's a waist unless you live by something and for me that's, "What My Heart Can Beat No More I hope I die for a principal that I have lived for" (Tupac Shakur)

NICK PLUGIS

Muchas gracias familia (especially mom, dad, Brett), you are my rocks; without you I'd be lost. Teachers- they say those who can't do are teachers, so you guys must not be able to do anything because I learned a lot. Coaches- if life is a game, I should never lose because you have trained me to win. Dave, Dan, Neil, Cory, Perry, Carl, Tom, LD, Alex - for good times at the soccer field, Cory's house, and while extracting justice through donuting. Lauren- for teaching me to tango on the middle school dance floor. Katie, Eliza, and Christine- Thanks for letting me make this longer without paying anything extra, and for coming to my house once. Also, special thanks Luke, Todd, DJ, and anyone else that I didn't have space to include.

Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you will land among the stars." Thank you guys - I love you all so much... Mom- You're the most generous and supportive mother I could ever ask for. Thank you for always putting up with me, giving me freedom, being there, caring, and loving me so much. Dad- You make everything better and always make me laugh. Thank you for your perspective, constant encouragement, optimism, and rationality. Colleen- You are so smart and funny and sweet. You're the best role model and kindest big sister. Moe- for spoiling me, being hilarious, going after big dreams, inspiring me. Max & Erin- my mind-reading two musketeers every day since kindergarten. SoMetImEs...bricks on heads, tag at Davis, stomach ache laughing, chips & queso, "don't worry 'bout it," midnight drives for rap and psychologist advice, scary movies, loves it, visiting at work, knowing everything. You're my confidantes, mood lifters, and absolute second half. You sluts guys are like siblings and this isn't the end, at all- it's Boston for college... Sara- "we're learning here!" early childhood, tutoring w/ whispering. Being identical. Tracy- party hopping and college trips, singing in the car, brownie sundaes, lost on many highways and honking hysterically, facebook stalking, Frienddulls all the time - our second little home with bicycles and drama. You've taught me everything from lumberjack shirts to not having regret... and many crazy things between. "And Trace? What? Thank you. You're so welcome, sweetie." <3 Katy- weekend nights of corrupting (=), sleepovers, every single day of the summer, I miss you so much. For Lindsay, Maya, Juliette, Lauren, SB, my Frienddulls crowd, and everyone else, you know who you are. For all my girls of '06, the BB, the crew; Jen, Lindsay, Leah, Michelle, Erica, Steph - I love you all and can't wait until summer! For the class of 2007... we did it!!!

MICHELLE RICHTER

"HAHA...math humor." -Venkatesh "Wherever you go, no matter what the weather, always bring your own sunshine." Anthony J. D'Angelo Mom - I don't know where I would be without you. Thank you for always listening to me tell you about my day five times. Dad - Thank you for being my number one fan at all my races and games, for coaching me all those years, proof reading all my papers, and spending time with me in general. Danny - You always showed me the way and made the librarians love me - I couldn't ask for a better big brother. Ben - You will always be my little brother! Thanks for letting me dress you up when we were little, playing catch with me, and pretty much doing everything with me. Despite what you may think, I do love spending time with you. Bigger Ben - Thanks for being another Ben that I love spending time with. All the different restaurants we've eaten at, ping pong we've played, semi and prom. The list goes on. It's all been awesome! Lisa - Optimonger pal! We've done it all together from rolling quarters to Disney World to swinging on the swings eating kettle corn to annoying everyone with "coo." You are my favorite softball catch buddy, the best "roof ball" player. Thanks for all the crazy, unforgettable times. Ashley - Guess what Ashley? It's a day 1! We can walk together! I could not have asked for a better person to survive the stressful parts of high school with (History Fair!). Fast food runs, karaoke, ketchup, "Neil daug's" concert; it's been incredible! Megan - Thank you for being hysterical and making every moment so much fun. I have no other friend who would put water on her pants just to read a poem! Lauren - Being friends and playing softball with you is awesome, with Disney World of course being the highlight. Thanks for the advice when it comes to playing outfield like the Sandlot (although I am not really sure the coaches were as impressed)! Katie S. - From math class to the softball field to sharing Earls of Sandwich Caribbean Jerk Chicken sandwiches, you are the greatest. Kaylyn - Thanks for being one of my co-outfielders, roasting marshmallows over candles, and being all around hysterical to be around. Neha - Those math parties were awesome! Thanks for all the Indian food, Indian movies, and sharing my nerdy love of math. Sheila - Track buddy! You made the Reggie, math and Spanish way more fun for four years straight. Erin - My very first friend! I don't even know where to begin thanking you. I can say, however, that we've had some amazing times together - matching pink bathing suits, playing hairdresser, waiting at the bus stop, writing songs about everything, softball, sledding - just to name a few. I'll never forget any of it. Jenna - Thanks for being my Hebrew School pal, car ride conversations, Melafaphone!, D.C., and much more. Ryan - From Watchusett, to running, to school, thanks for always being a close friend. Julie - Thanks for being on every youth sport team with me, even if we danced instead of actually playing the sports. You are the best person to play board games with, he out of tune in band with, and simply be crazy with! Steph, Jen, Lisa G, Stacey, Deandra, Liz, Peter, Neil, Luke, Randy, Andy, Chris - Whether I was friends with you from school, or sports, or any number of things, you have made my life so much more fun. Jen (again), Brianna, Sam, Katie, Melody, Aimee - my x-c team! Thank you everyone else who has made difference and anyone I may have forgot. Good luck!

"The reason death sticks so closely to life isn't biological necessity - it's envy. Life is so beautiful that death has fallen in love with it, a jealous, possessive love that grabs at what it can. But life leaps over oblivion lightly, losing only a thing or two of no importance, and gloom is but the passing shadow of a cloud."

-Yann Martel

My parents, for shaping me and giving me parts of yourselves. For bringing me to the MFA before I could walk to look at Renoir and Cassat; for giving me a library card at the age of 5 and paying my late fees; and for driving to Florida, the Midwest, and around and through every corner of New England. For instilling in me a love of art, books, music, and travel that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. For offering me thoughts, theories, and values and letting me choose my own path. I love you. My little sister. "If nobody claim it, I'm going to sell it - ohp! never mind, somebody take it." For sharing my sense of humor, for being beautiful, intelligent, creative, and for knowing who you are. Thank you for keeping things in perspective and always knowing what's important. I love you. To my friends, you are each stunning and unique and incredible; I wouldn't associate with you otherwise. Christine, for the loofah, for knowing me better than I know myself, for unfathomable understanding. We have grown up together, gone from dreaming of our own cars with open windows and sunglasses, from walking to CVS and bringing boxes of hair dye back to my house, to actually driving aimlessly together, gossiping and sharing ourselves. Thank you for hitting the box, endless TV show marathons, your couch, Jane, coffee, and for being the biggest gaper I know. Je t'aime... avec Beth. Katie, for appreciating the Starbucks atmosphere and jazz music, for never wanting to make decisions, for Whang-Sil and middle school, for sharing clothing and jewelry and for Keith. Thank you for x-block lunches (why don't we ever go innn), hit the box, and for Chinese food on the Common, for that summer, for always being there. You are creative and generous and amazing, ma chérie (that's French, just so you know). Love you pook-bear. Russell, I don't know how to write something in as many words and colors and languages and shapes as you deserve. Thank you for everything we've had, for the window pane that was there, Amagansett, Eskimos, and Harvard. And for not calling your mom. Lums. It is hold, italics, and underlined. It is strangely intangible. It is what I do to you. Thank you for shopping trips, for having the nicest car in the parking lot, and for keeping me distracted in Chem/AP Bio. Kitten, for being the hot one and always getting the most honks on our impossibly long walks around Bedford. Thank you for Ferry Beach, sleepovers, the dinner party, and everything else we've shared. Thank you Milo and Prashanth for letting me hang out with older kids. I'd like to think I'm much cooler for it. Maya, thank you for Boh Dylan, the Indian Chief's daughter, your sense of humor, being undeniably gorgeous, and (most of all) for being a real person. Dan, Neil, Perry, Nick (once)- thank you for Pictionary, the Office, and launching stuff. Cat, thanks for coffee, the dinner party, exposing me to some decent country music.... Could I attend the gym wachu sometime? Adrienne (for the Boxer Series) and Sophie, for letting me be an honorary colorguard member. Alex, thanks for making me the best sandwich I've ever had. Luke, thank you for a boffo nature walk. Mrs. Santos, thanks for selective hearing. I'd also like to thank the Hills, for asking me about their groceries, the Neffs, the Rennies, and the Mazels (specifically for prom and waffles). Mrs. Sullivan, thank you for lying and saying my poetry was good, and for bagels.

Thank you Starbucks, for peppermint mochas and jazz music; John Mayer, for verbalizing teenage angst to pretty guitar chords; Taco Bell, for the fantastic artwork and the drive-thru; Laguna Beach, for being the ultimate guilty pleasure; Fran, for letting me make a profit off buying school lunches; Facebook, for providing a means of procrastination; and Bedford, for bringing us together, for twelve years of construction, and for giving us all a hometown to come back to. Thank you to all my teachers, classmates, and the people I've met here. To the class of 2007; see you in five.

Thanks mom and dad for your constant support and confidence in me in everything I've ever done. Whether out of naivety or sincerity, you always believed in me more than I did myself. Paul, I have to thank you for the one thing you are actually good for, teaching me the art of pirating movies. Also, thanks for including the Red Sox in your senior thanks but leaving me out (it's understandable. I never won a world series). But seriously, thanks for being an awesome brother. Thanks to all my other family for supporting me, including but not limited to the times anyone has shown up at my softball games when I didn't expect it. To all my friends, just so I don't have to write this about each person individually. I love and appreciate all of you more than I make apparent. Thanks for putting up with n and my antics. Kaylyn: You've been my best friend since preschool. As far back as I can remember you were always there for me. No one knows me better than you, and I consider you family. Thank you for everything. Michelle: Thanks for making phone calls so e (even though you typically made them) and for having nothing else to do on many a SATurday night so we could go quarter roll and do whatever completely random, crazy things we could think up. You will always be partner in rhyme #2. Bideep. Optimonger for life! Megan: O captain my captain, thank you for having healing powers. I will never forget the craziest of turns you guided me through in the car. Thanks for quelling a couple of nervous breakdowns. And for blowing stuff up even though it probably wasn't smart to do so on base. Thanks for reading my most convoluted emails. And most importantly, thanks for being my co-pirate. Yay Ashley: Thanks for making me drink the hot sauce, and for yelling at me when I procrastinate or do something stupid (seriously, I am a better person today because of it, especially for the hot sauce). I also thoroughly enjoy your high pitched shrieks when I pull out in front of cars. Make me some croquetas and I'll (have my mom make you some empanadas. Lauren: Stumpy, the two of us are unbelievable. Thank you for sharing a brain with me and startling the crap out of me every time we speak simultaneously. I am also forever grateful of the sound effects you provide during my renditions of "Kung Fu Fighting." You have expert timing. Sayonara! I feel the need to thank you for forcing me to watch all those scary movies, even if The Shining did not quite work out for me. I'm going to know the meaning of life. Plan X is going down. Florida Ten: Thanks for enjoying with me the greatest week of my life. Thank you Earl of Sandwich. Mr. Niven: Thank you for being the most unique and inspiring teacher I've ever had. I know now why one side of the flying V isn't always as long as the other. And thanks for captaining the pirate club and signing (almost) all the sheets Mr. and I threw in your face. I'm definitely running out of time and words. If you have not been thanked, it's not because I forgot you it's because I'm writing this at one in the morning and still have homework to do (time management is not my forte). If you are reading this, you undoubtedly need to be thanked. I'm sorry. Thank you so much for everything.

Mom & Dad: I don't know how I could ever completely thank you for all that you have done for me these past eighteen years. For helping me with homework to teaching me how to drive, you have done so much for me (even if you couldn't quite teach me how to back out of the driveway without going over the grass). I know that I drive you both crazy at times, but you never stop supporting and encouraging me. I love you both. Alexis: Sister! I spelt that wrong purposely!) Who would have ever thought that all the hair-pulling and screaming would turn us into best friends. Thank you for always being there for me (back crack anyone?). You never would have survived the past four years without you. You are my best friend and I love you to the moon and back. It is just not real fun until you are there. Just always remember that birds have feathers and that you are most definitely a year younger than people your age. Yiayia & Papou: Thank you both so much for a year of love and support over the years. Some of my best memories have come from Cape Cod, Florida, and late night Shanghai games. I could never repay either of you for your support and encouragement. Neil: You always know how to make me smile and laugh and I can't thank you enough for that. Thank you for making every (including soccer games) fun and memorable. Michelle: Michelle-Belly! It's just like you said: I can't thank-you in words, but going to try anyway. From freshman year English. (Guess what hley? It's day one! We can walk together!) to History Fair, (We're not piggling out... We're stress eating! It's completely different and 0 percent justifiable.) to Karaoke Revolution in your basement, (high school would not have been the same without you. Thank you for always knowing how to brighten up my day. Megan: Where start? Thanks for always being there. From Coke and Mentos experiments to s'mores in your trash can, to humungous fireworks, you always find a way to have crazy amounts of fun. Thanks to you, I now know that it's always better in the corduroys (There's no comparison, really). So, "Thank you, and God Bless... the ompa-Lompahs!" Who else? Lisa: Leezer! Oh man, what would I do without you? Thank you for everything (especially suffering through Spanish class with me). Are you out of your tree? If not, ¿qué está tú árbol? Thank you so much for being crazy and making it rub off on me. I know that Billy Jean really is your lover bump bump... bump bump). Deandra: My favorite Ohio import! From Spanish help to gym class (even if we do scream when the bell comes near us) to health class (Um...I think you know too much about this!) we always have an awesome time. Thank you for everything. Mike Guanci: I cannot remember one time when I hung out and didn't have a great time. Above everything you've done for me, thank you for always knowing how to make me laugh (I know what you'll be studying in Marine Bio, Pumpkin). Dad: I cannot thank you enough for all that you have done for me these past four years (even if you did get "deported" to Israel in the process). Whether it was Geometry, Algebra II, Pre-Calc, or a simple need to talk, you were always there with Mountain Dew in hand. Thank you so much. Olga: You have been my favorite crazy girl since I can remember. Ever since we were 10, we've been comically insane together. Thank you for your contagious laugh and for always being there, even if it was just to scream "yogurt slinger" at the top of your lungs with me. The Richter's: Thank you so much for always making me feel as if I was a part of your family. From Angelos suhs to late night trips to Staples to get flash drives I truly appreciate all that you have done to always make me feel at home.

SHLEY RUGGIERO

Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime"
I would like to thank my Family for everything and for always being there when I needed you. Dad- thanks for being such a goof and always being willing to drive me around when I needed it. Mom- you have always been there to support me. You knew when I needed to be pushed and I appreciate it. Without you I wouldn't have been able to succeed like I have. K-K, Grandma, and Grandpa- thanks for being around all of the time and supporting me in everything I do. Cat- Thanks for being there for me no matter what. You are one of my best friends and I don't know what I would do without you. We have been through so many ups and downs the last couple of years but it seems we always manage to work it out. I will never forget all of the weekends, vacations, and summers we have spent together. Ape- We have been through so much over the years but we have managed to stay close. Thanks for being there to make me laugh. You will always be my favorite blonde. Devon- you are one of my best friends and I will never forget all of the sleepovers and good times we have had over the years. You are a great listener and can always give the best advice. Blair- thanks for always being an exception to every rule there ever was. You always know how to make everyone laugh and we have learned to never question your randomness. Eliza- You are the only one I can truly say I have grown up with. All of our good times will never be forgotten. To my favorite "Soccer girls": Amanda, Courtney, and Juliette. I am so glad that we have become so close this year. We have had so many good times and I hope there are many more to come. Krista- Thanks for always being there even though you are 500 miles away. I will never regret our endless late night calls; you were always there to listen to anything I had to say. Thanks to everyone for being there for me. I will miss you all!

First off I would like to thank my parents for always being there for me no matter what. Mom, I know I haven't always been the greatest son at times but thanks for realizing that I am the odd ball of the family and letting me make my own decisions. You have always cared for me and I know you always will. I love you. Dad, thank you for helping me with sports and teaching me no matter what I do I have to do it the best, go big or go home, the Santos motto. Also thank you for always taking me to car shows and many other things. Sheena, thanks for being a great older sister and always hacking me up when I had fights with Ryan. Ryan, thanks for heating on me and in doing so toughening me up and making me a stronger person. I would also like to thank all my boys for making high school the most memorable times of my life, and since it would take too long to right something for everyone I am just going to write the names and you guys can fill in the rest: Doug, Ferro, FaTzZ, Wyatt, Scott, Barbs, Todd, Jeremy, Jeff, Tony, Chris(all Chris's), Mike(all Mike's), Cris, Wilson, Antione, Jon, Woody, Bobby, Kegan, have fun at football next year, and if I forgot your name I'm sorry. Special thanks to the Howie residence, there's a first time for everything. Great times. Thank you to the whole senior class, thanks to everyone. And last but not least I would like to thank Amanda for being the greatest girlfriend and sticking with me for almost all of high school. We have shared so many great memories together and wouldn't trade them for anything. Thanks you for putting up with me all this time, I don't know how you have done it, you are just amazing. I love you

I want to thank god for making it possible for me to have made it this far. My parents for always being there and supporting me. I want to thank those who are my friends and those who aren't for teaching me a lot of things. My brothers and sisters especially my baby (Reymer) for letting me know I still have a lot to do in this world. My cousins, especially Miguel and Bianny, for listening when I needed to express myself. Lastly, to Myth (you know who you are) for making a difference in my life and making my life much easier. My grandfather: "I love you and see you soon." To my teachers: "Thank you for making me better."

First off, I want to thank my parents for all the support and boost that I needed throughout all of the years of school. It was a pretty humpy one. Military Life Is Crazy, 10 Different Schools and 11 different homes. Thank God it's the end. Mom- stay the same. Being Crazy and singing in the middle of stores and having people stare at us. Thanks. Dad- Thanks for all the support and help I needed through out the years. Helping me with all the things I needed help in and I know you think that I don't care and I don't need help, but I do and everything did help me. Luke- yo! My first friend here in MA. Thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to, and getting me into new music and stuff. Oh, thanks for always correcting the dumb things I say. I'm not smart. Thanks for trying to teach me how to play guitar, drums and everything else that I fail at life at. Keith- BROTTIA!! What Can I say about my younger brother? Hmm... Dude, you are so crazy and funny. Stay the way you are. You are honestly my brother and we just met this year. Thanks for always being there and just helping me with everything. I just honestly needed it. Thanks for just helping me get out of the shell I was in. DOORKNOB Dell, Kevin & Walt- you guys are crazy. Tayla- HEY BOO!!! We should make our own comedy group with our inside jokes. No Joke. E.T. he'tta not call collect, I'm not answering it. He Betta call someone else. DENY Deandra- WHAT IS UP! Thanks for being such a cool friend. Thanks for being there to help me when I needed it. I Miss Kacee! Sam G- you are one crazy girl, but I love ya. We are probably the 2 coolest people on earth for seeing Monster House. I haven't got my key chain yet. I smile when I have no idea what's going on. Ha-ha. Good Times. To Everyone I didn't thank (Or Forgot)- Sorry but I guess you're not cool enough. Just Kidding (Kinda) CONGRATS CLASS OF 07!! WE DID IT.

"Neil, sleep on your side or you'll die" - Perry

I'd like to begin by thanking my family. Dad, Mom, nothing I put on this paper can thank you enough for what you have done for me. Sahil, thanks for being a cooperative and helpful brother. Perry - Yasu Rai. We somehow found entertainment in Bedford, and I'm glad I had you to share that with. Shake n' Bake. Cory - Thanks for always being friendly and always laughing with me. Keep on smiling Jesus. Ben - I will always miss living at your house and doing every project with you. Nick - I bet you can throw a golf ball across two football fields. Good times. David - You always made me feel better about myself. Thanks. LD - Ten-man Everton. Bill - Thanks for making me more beautiful. Andy - You've been my friend for the longest time. Thank you. Thanks to the summer crew for never letting me get bored (Those who played poker, soccer, tennis, donutted with me, and worked with me). Dan - Hanging out at your house was always fun. You're good at rubix cubes. Dave - Donutting, FIFA, it was always fun. Carl- Thanks for always being cheerful and European. Tom - OMI would've been boring without you. Remember Blue. Alex - Thanks for always being willing to hang out. Christine & Eliza - You guys were always together. it's only natural I group you together. Thanks for always hanging out. Kevin - Thanks for never being serious. Bucs Boys soccer, drink the Kool-Aid. Ashley - Thank you for great memories and for making my senior year more special than it already was. I want to thank all my teachers and mentors for guiding me through high school. Just because your name is not in bold, it does not mean that I don't thank you. If you've ever laughed with me, I thank you

ASHLEY THEODORE

Mom and Dad - Thank you so much for always being there for me. You have always supported me and everything I do, and I can't even begin to tell you how much I appreciate it. I love you Alisha- I accept your apology for the next 10 years! From playing horses to our "yo mamas" competition (I won), you make me laugh more than anyone else can. You are my best friend and I love you. Courtney, Alisha, Juliette, Ananda - Thanks for all the fun times and for keeping me laughing. Dancing to lolipop, camping better I have become since I started playing snare with you. You always kept things interesting and funny by saying the most random things I have ever heard. Denmark - You are the greatest person to jam with. Period. Well, this is it. I hope everyone has enjoyed these past years as much as I have.

I would like to start by thanking my family, for everything you have taught me and put up with from me. Mom ~ Even though we fight, I'll love you forever. Thank you for putting up with my sudden mood changes, for making me breakfast and lunch almost everyday and for supporting me in everyway possible. Dad ~ Thanks for being the "cool" soccer coach and putting up with my constant energy. We've had our moments, but I'll always love you. Rebecca ~ Sorry for being annoying, but thanks for helping me whenever I needed it and sharing your music collection with me. John ~ My brother, where to start. We've fought over the years, but now we finally get along. Thank you for always being yourself and there when I needed math help. John "Red" ~ Thank you for everything. We've gone through some difficult times but have always managed to pull through. I could never dream of loving anyone more than I love you. From shopping at the mall to Rocky Horror Picture Show to ice skating in Chelmsford, we have had so many wonderful memories times. You have always been there when I need a shoulder to cry on or just someone to make me laugh hysterically. I Love you, always and forever. Caroline ~ My "sister," we have shared so many memories and new ones still to come. From sliding down your basement stairs in sleeping bags to throwing surprise parties for each other. It feels like we've known each other forever. Even though you are far away now, you'll always be my crazy Caroline. Lacey ~ Ohhhh Lacey my little sister, neighbor, and best friend. It all started when you moved into the house across the street. It feels so strange to be writing this, can you believe it, I'm graduating! Thank you for always being my Lacey and putting up with my craziness. I will miss you next year when I am away at college. But you will come and visit, I know, I will make you! Kaylyn and Olivia ~ This year has been so much fun. I'm so glad that we have gotten closer. Truth or dare was amazing as well as going to see Jackass 2 in theaters. All Of My Other Friends ~ Thank you for being you and never changing. These years have been wonderful. They always say that your high school years will be the best you'll ever have, and guess what, they're right, it's been amazing. To The Class Of 2007 ~ Congratulations and good luck in the future.

I'll start out by saying Tom, it's never good to just let backpack stoves blow up, that was fun though. Thanks to all my co-workers and friends from Wedgewood, you guys make summer fun. Thanks to the soccer team, this season was great. Dan, thanks for being smart, I didn't always need the sarcasm, but whatever. And Nick Neil said, you could probably throw a golf ball really really far, thanks for the awesome one-liners, and Perry, thanks for starting the whole donut excursion. Carl, European wear is very cool. To anyone not mentioned in here, and thank you all for a great school experience.

Okay first off, I need to thank my parents for doing all they did get me where I am today. They taught me all the values I have and are the only reason that I have managed to have a sense of humor about things. Mike- Thanks for the friendly competition and for always supporting me, even after I just dominated you in something. Sal- Thanks for keeping the family legacy of cynicism alive, and succeeding in athletics and academics. Alright now for friends, do it in alphabetical order to be fair, by the third letter of your name. Nick- If I ever need someone to throw something incredible, you're the first one I'll call. Other than that, thanks for being my most constant friend during the last ten years. Alex- Thanks for putting up with us when we were constantly making fun of you, even though you knew your muscles could leap out and destroy us at any time. Neil- Thanks for being the craziest, coolest Indian I know and for being a fellow soccer enthusiast. Eliza- Thanks for good conversation and for giving me the busiest weekend soccer I've ever had. You're one of very few people that shares my sense of humor, sarcastic sense of humor and for that I thank you. Luke- All every comment you've ever made is on my list of best things I've heard all week. Thanks also for being up for some soccer playing at any time of the day or year. Christine- Thanks for appreciating sarcasm almost as much as I do. Carl- Thanks for being the best poster-European I know, and for your love of soccer and incredible goofiness. Perry- Thanks for being the mastermind behind most of our craziest ideas and for keeping us entertained while we were sprinting down back roads or sitting in bushes, donuts in hand. Dave- Thanks for being so tall. Also I'm glad you've always been there to shoot down our dumbest ideas, and then chime in a minute later with an even worse one, thereby both entertaining and keeping us from ever actually doing something. Thanks also to the soccer and track teams who have given me the competition camaraderie I've always needed. And to everyone else that I've talked to, when I'm winning something in twenty years, whether a Nobel Prize or "janitor of the month," feel free to claim that you knew me better than you did.

 Over the past four years I have learned that I have talent of my own. I am a mess of things, but luckily these people have always been there to help me clean up. Mom&Dad: Who have always let me use my "huhh?" excuse and for never letting me give up. Jessi: For doing everything first and then showing how things were done. Lauren and Julie: After Spirit, dance shows, talent shows, and sports it seems like we could never be apart. Thanks for letting me be me.

ates to prom and letting me be the third wheel in your world. I love you both forever. The Twins: Jenna, my shotty (or we have problems), times of cleaning cars, flat tires, and dancing in parking lots will always be with me, love you pretty. Lisa, ohh my goodness that would we do without you. So remember the time I told everyone that you were in rehab? Love you and our awesome movie nights. Who else would I eat ice cream and watch chick flicks with. Steph: So many nights of sleeping on your couch, watching Mean Girls, and eating ice cream. Thanks for being there when I always needed you. Shara: Lacrosse, Raptors, volleyball, kiss concert, shopping trips to target, and so many more. Remember when I hated you? I guess somewhere between senior year and middle school something changed because I really couldn't live without you!! Kat: Sophomore year with almost every class with you was so much fun. I at least I know that even after high school I will still see you (both of us are way to chicken to quit our jobs). So many great times and so many great more ahead- I can't wait for what's next for all of us.

I would like thank the Lord Jesus Christ for being (and will always be) my: friend, guide, savior, and the purpose to my life! Family: thank you so much for being a huge part of my life. What would I do without our "Family hugs," lazy family Sunday read alouds, playing cards and summer trips to Maine. Dad and Mom: thank you for all the times you told and showed that you loved me. Thanks for coming to all my high school sports games, driving me to school every morning, trying to get me to go to bed before midnight, encouraging me and reminding me of what really matters in life. DAD - Thanks for providing for all of us, being the official sports dad. MOM - thanks for your nonstop love, making dinners, doing our laundry, sharing your love for music with me (Pavarotti!), and especially those fun two hour conversations late at night! I love you two so much and words can't express how grateful I am. JOHN: my big bro, I have loved talking to you on the phone, spending time with you on the soccer field, enjoying Starhucks, composing a rap rhyme together. LAURA: My big sis, I love and admire you so much. You are beautiful on the inside and out! PETER: "the best little brother in the whole wide world." I am so glad you came to live with us. My life would have been so different without you! JESSICA: what a privilege to be your friend and share many adventures. We have enjoyed: talking, laughing, listening, sharing the same struggles with dyslexia, encouraging, having fun, and not being self conscious. HYUN JOO, ELISSA you two are so great! I am so glad to have really gotten to know you this year and become your friend! Hyun Joo: keep up the incredible art work! You have great ability, and wonderful personality. Some day I will wish I had gotten your autograph! Elissa: your unique personality and love for life is so evident. You are a lot of fun to be with... I am so glad for all the times I ran into you and drove you home! OLIVIA: you are a beautiful person, awesome singer, hard worker, and you care about others! You will never know how much I have appreciated your friendship all these years through high school. MARIANNA: I have so much enjoyed being your friend... you too are a wonderful person! KRISTINA: I have enjoyed being your friend and spending time with you in long walks. KATIE S.: I have enjoyed talking with you at lunch this year. You are so much fun to be with! "You do not need a huge fan club to make you happy in high school, just a few true friends."

Hey SOCCER GIRLS! You rock my world!!! Together we have accomplished what the last 25 girls soccer teams at BHS could not do. There are people who dream, and there are people (like you) who make dreams happen. I am so proud of you! BFCA: a special thanks to all the high schoolers who served with me on the student leadership team to make this club happen at BHS, in the last three years! Carl, Lisa, John, Matt, Mark, Olivia and Allie! We started and continued the first Christian fellowship club at BHS. What an awesome privilege to be used by God, and see him working in the lives of students! TEACHERS: Mrs. Ratichek, I could have not done it without your help. I am blessed to have you be a part of my life. Wow, Mrs. Sakelakos I made it through! Thanks for all your encouragement, and help in science. I have countless times enjoyed our many laughs through the last four years! Mr. Lahiff, thanks for being there for BFCA. You were great in all the ways we asked you to help! You made a great BHS club advisor. What a crazy adventure! If it were not for God leading me to BHS I would have never met so many extraordinary people; friends and teachers, and for that I am thoroughly grateful!

KATIE WILKINS

First of all I would like to thank my family for always being there. Mom & Dad, thanks for supporting me in everything I do. Without you I wouldn't be the person I am today. I love you guys! Lindsay, you're the best! You're not only my sister, but my best friend. Thanks for all the laughs and fun times. I'll never forget them! Tommy, you're the coolest brother I could ever ask for and I love you! Kira, thanks for going to all the football and basketball games with me. And for having those awesome SVU parties. April, thanks for all the fun times we had together. The fashion shows, going to the beach, and dancing to AC DC were amazing! Thanks to Kaylyn, Katie S., Lisa, Lauren, Michelle, and Megan for the fun times in softball. Florida was a blast! Sarah, I will never forget all of the fun times we had in Girl Scouts. Thanks for always being there. You are a great friend! Thanks to all of my teachers and coaches for helping me become a better person. And thanks to everyone else for all of the great memories. Good luck class of '07!

"Whats your name?"

"Whats this red stuff?"

Although it is clear to me who I need to thank for making my 18 years a successful learning experience in school and outside of school, it is extremely difficult to fit all those who have inspired me in their own ways.

My Great-Grandfather came to this country along with many other immigrants searching for the American dream. We say they were searching for the American dream, however they knew they would never see the dream, and probably questioned even if their children would see that dream, but yet they still made the sacrifices to lay the first brick in building a new life. So my first thanks goes to all Immigrants like my Great-grandfather who blindly created this uniquely cultural country.

Dad, I can confidently say that you and I have one of the most unique relationships a father and son can have. We have been best buds since I was able to walk and to this day we still refer to one another as buddies and I know you fear one day that may fade. However it won't, because it is true, you are my best friend, you understand everything I do, almost more than I do. When I was younger I got into trouble for things that I didn't even do yet. Every time I mess up I pray that you don't come, but when you come I pray you don't go. I know the majority of kids my age, hide everything from their parents, they're basically a totally different person in their parents perspective and I often wonder what my life would be like if I ever had to lie that much to my parents, so I thank you for being so cool. I am inspired by the long and unnecessary hours you put into work to give us the little extras while simultaneously thriving Grandpa's dreams to a level he said "I couldn't dream of this success in my most wildest dreams."

Mom, thank you for hailing me out so many times. I love having you in the school and not just for when I forget my books, my lunch money etc; Yet with a handful of screaming preschool children you still find time to talk to me.

I wouldn't know how to survive if my siblings were not as cool as you guys are. Dave, you and I have always had a great relationship through out the years, we have shared the same qualities ever sense we were younger. It has been a great experience working with you, I have learned a lot about the retail end of the family business. Your knowledge in sales impresses me so much; I still can't fathom the accomplishments you have made at such a young age. I wish you the best of luck in the future.

Roh, you and I don't consider each other brothers, because we are friends. I was too immature to understand how lucky I was to have a brother as an upper classman. I wish I listened to the warnings you gave me when I was a freshman. At the time, although you repeatedly tried to tell me you weren't lecturing me, I was convinced that's exactly what you were doing. Now I understand what you were trying to say. I am glad that you are having a blast in college and also learning, that shows me that I should be able to do both as well. Thanks for everything.

Danielle, it is so cool having you in my school, I think it is so cool that we also chill outside of school. Like I said I know friends that would rather jump off a bridge before they hang with their siblings especially sister. I need to thank you for waking me up in the morning.

Outside of my family I need to thank those who have also inspired me in a certain way. The O'Brien's, you guys have to be the coolest people I have ever met. Pat (Mr. happy) O'Brien, Pat I don't know how you are so boring and lazy but yet so chill. You always look for the negative rather than the positive you know exactly how to piss anyone off but its funny. Chris thanks for always beating the crap out of pat for me. Cheryl, you have always been a second mom to me and I could never repay you for the things you have done. Richie (Clark Grizwald) O'Brien, Rich I am finally admitting that I have so much more fun hanging out with you then pat. "Take it easy Rust"

Steph, we have had so much fun together, you always find a way to put me in a good mood I thank you for being so cool and understanding. Matt (Turkey) I know you hate bean so I called you turkey. Matt, we have had so many good times even though Mr. Happy wasn't around. Hahaha. Wilson you and I have been friends for so long and you're still a good friend man. Marcus we have been friends for so long I hope it stays that way man thanks for being Marcus. Craig you are the man, your always up for anything. Porta, Mercurio, chuck, colin, Britney, Olivia, Thanks for being so cool. I want to thank Mr. Chinosi who really introduced American Literature to me, Mr. Boschetto you have also made school a better place to be. Mrs. Sullivan it's only the beginning of the year but I have a feeling your going to be a very cool teacher. Thank you everyone else who I didn't mention, you know who you are.

Parents: First I want to say thank you to my parents for always being there for me and for taking me on so many trips for lacrosse. You guys have always believed in me and I know you'll never stop. Thank you and I love you guys. Jonathan: Thanks for being a great brother and always pushing me to be better and always believing in me when I don't. Steph: You have always been a great girlfriend! You have made such a positive impact in my life. We have so many memories, going to Vermont, Florida, Connecticut, and other places. You will always have a place in my heart and I know you'll keep it. I love you so much and I don't know what I would ever do without you! Anthony & Amanda: Anthony you've been a good friend since first grade. We have had a lot of fun over the years like the Eastern Mass lacrosse team, car shows at Kimball's, and classes together. Thanks for everything. Amanda, I really only got to know you over the last couple of years, we've had fun going to the car shows, doing double dates, and just hanging out. Thanks for everything. The Guys: Doug, Ferro, Todd, Greg, Wyatt, Chris, Mike B, Jeff, Max, Chris M, Devon, Tony, Mike G, Jon, Bobby, we've had some fun times, classes, lunch, parties, thanks for always making me laugh and keeping it fun. Thanks guys. Kendra & Lindsay: I've known you guys since first grade. We've had some fun, just hanging out, especially in middle school at Max's house. Lindsay thanks for reading to me. Thanks for everything. Lax Team: Guys we've had some fun times, going to states, having water hottle fights on the bus, thanks for everything, good luck! Soccer Team: Guys we had a good season, had fun, thanks. Devon, LD, Davio, DK, JC, Steve, Greg, DJ, Hamish, thanks for making it fun. Good luck next year! Thank you to anyone that I have forgotten.

Wow! The year I have waited for since I started school here in Bedford has come and gone. Mommy: I could never show how much I appreciate the support you gave me in school and in ballet. Thank you for always helping me get through extremely hard times in school and especially dance. Driving me everywhere and dealing with my never ending complaints. I love you more then life itself and you're the most unbelievable and caring person. You were always there for me whenever I needed you. Daddy: Dad, thank you so much for the support in my school work and my ballet work. I could never show the gratitude that I have. Thank you for dealing with any of those crazy school problems that came up, (crap). I love you more then life itself and you are the most thoughtful and caring person I know. You make me laugh so much and I cannot go a day without your laughter. Philbo: The years that we were in school together we really the best because I always knew that I had someone to go and talk to if I had any problems. You taught me a tremendous amount about life and how to live it better. (how to lie to mom and dad). You always know how to get the family back on track if we are having some sort of argument. I love you more then life itself and I wish you the absolute best with your lighting career. Mom, Dad, Phil, Grandpa, Uncle Andrew and Aunt lleene, thank you for always pushing me to my fullest and teaching me how to live life. Grandpa, I love you so much and you are the best Grandpa in the world. I love talking to you and being around you. I love you. Thank you Aunty and Uncle Andrew for the fun trips to tennis and Mets games. Thank you for bringing me to my first hallet performance in NYC. That meant so much to me. It is fun to always hreak the rules a little when I'm away from home. I always have so much fun going over your house for the week and I love you both very much. Janine: The secret girl talks and fun dates that we had at the Cheesecake factory were a huge part of high school. I could not have gotten through without you and your advice. No one is like you and you were there for me whenever I needed you. Every time I walked through the hallway I saw you and it made me happier. I had some tough times that you helped me through. Thank you for being a trustworthy person. You are an incredible and beautiful person inside and out and I wish you the best in you life. Remember to be happy and I will always be there to talk to you whenever you want. I love you! Lauren: I cannot believe that we made it through high school alive. You are an incredible friend to have and I could not have gone through my school years without you. You have given me so much inspiration and I love you so much. You are an amazing marching hand player and softball player. All of those visits and parties at your house were so much fun and we always had a glorious time. You are such a beautiful and caring person inside and out. Maya, well, you know how much fun we had in ballet since the little years and now we are actually graduating from high school. Goes by fast right? You are so much fun to be around and you constantly know how and what to say to make me laugh. We can always find something or someone to make fun of. I Love you lots. Thank you so much Ms. Sav and Ms. Foley for the great help you gave me throughout high school. Thank you for helping me to understand my learning disability better. Ms. Sav, thank you for teaching me to bring up my confidence in meetings or in my school work. (Those think writings were brutal). Ms. Foley thank you for helping me be less stressed whenever I thought I couldn't do something and for teaching me more about the happiness in life. Thank you Mr. Zellner for all the good talks we had about Alaska and just whatever. Ferro, it was always the best when we were in classes together. I will always remember your birthday and will always give you that special call. Steph, Jeremy, Max, thank you for coming to my ballet performances and supporting me since I was young. Mark, the movies were great and those funny inside jokes were too. Wow. everyone, we have finally made it to the end of high school. I wish the entire class of 2007 the best and remember to always choose the path that will make you the happiest in the long run.

OLIVIA OSGOOD

Olive, Olives

Quotes: "Why would you want a badonkadonkbadonk anyway -Oklahoma rehearsal

"I wanna get pregnant so I can be fat, then skinny, then fat again..." -Junior Health

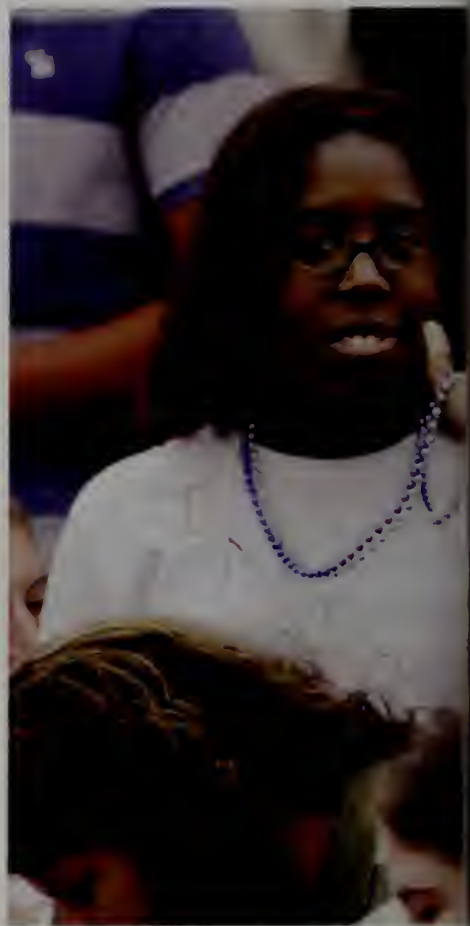

"Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall, but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." Isaiah 40: 30-31

Thanks Mom and Dad, for all your unconditional love and support. Thanks Tristan for everything, no matter how much I torment you. - I am so lucky to have such an amazing brother. Thanks to all my friends, who have been there for me all these years, you know who you are. Always laughing with me, and sometimes at me. Every one of you has taught me so much about life and myself. You mean so much to me and I am so grateful for the times we've had together. You're all irreplaceable.

AMANDA BRYSON

These past few years at Bedford High School will be some of the most cherished years of my life. I've met so many people, and made so many good friends. I thank everyone who made these unforgettable memories possible. First and foremost, I'd like to thank my amazing mother. You're my best friend and my role model. Ever day you continue to inspire me to be the best person I can. I love you mum! Dad, these past few years have been difficult. I appreciate your continuous efforts to make me a better person. I still, and always will, love you. I'll always be your little princess Josh, my little bro! WE've been through a lot together growing up. You're so young and you have so much to look forward to. Good luck and try hard in school. Stay away from the bad things. I love ya little man! Memere and Papa. The Lobes! Thank you so much for everything you have done for me these past few years. Papa for driving me to school every day. Little woman for your love and guidance. Angelisa, my best! TTBB. We've had so much fun ther and made so many memories. There's way to many to But let me just say that we've had some wicked good times massive! Thank God we met that random time at Rob's house.

re would I be without my second half? I'll never ever forget babe! Meo, Ruff! Haha. Besos! Alexi, you'r elike a sister to I'm so glad that we became such good friends. THanks for e good times and memories. Many more to come! I love oman. Peace 1 haha. Olivia, Steph, an dHannah, my lovie!
ve had some good times together... Chili's. Ah, the piercing!!
I'll never forget the NGG! Overall, these past few years i've at at BHS I've had some good times with people I will never

MARK

Mark,
 From the moment we landed in Bedford, back in 6th grade, you hit the ground running--cross country, soccer, Wachusett, youth group, and the neighborhood. You made friends faster than any of us! Your love for life, your easy laugh, your powers of observation, and your strong faith have enriched the lives of all who know you. It's been a joy to watch you grow up, and we look forward to all you'll accomplish in the years to come.

With love and pride,
 Mom and Dad
